Nick Saban is the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and has won four titles in his past eight years of coaching college football. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years, joining Frank Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He also is the fourth coach in the poll era to win four-plus national championships (Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant, John McKay of Southern California and Leahy). Under Saban's guidance, Alabama boasts a 978 Academic Progress Report score for the 2011-12 season that ranked 11th nationally and led the Southeastern Conference. The Crimson Tide also has a 75-percent graduation rate, which is among the best in the nation.

GAMEDAY ENTRANCE

The press area in the Bryant-Denny Stadium Press Box is located on the second level on the west side of the Stadium. The entrance to the press box is through the press elevator, located near gate 11. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call is at ticket window 8 located at the northwest corner of the end zone complex adjacent to Gate 3 of Bryant-Denny Stadium.

RADIO/TELEVISION/COACHES

Located on the main press level, there is a primary live television broadcast booth and a booth available for tape-delayed telecasts. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews and Alabama and visiting coaches booths. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to these booths.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are available only to working members of the media who represent accredited outlets that are actively covering the event. All credential requests must be made through the Crimson Tide's online credentialing system. For further information, contact Doug Walker at dwalker@ia.ua.edu or Josh Maxson at jmaxson@ia.ua.edu.

PHOTO DECK

This level, located in front of the main press box at Bryant-Denny Stadium, offers ample space for still photographers, network TV cameras and coaches film crews.

SIDELINES

Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

• Credentials must be visible in order to gain access to the field.
• All photographers/videographers on the sideline must be in attendance in a working capacity with proper equipment.
• Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines.
• No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for each team's broadcast originating networks.
• Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and credentials will not be provided for grip operations.
• No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential for sideline access.
• Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.
• Photographers should contact associate SID Roots Woodruff for further information at (205) 348-2088.
• Photographers may send photos from the Alabama Photo Room located in the south end on the field level of Bryant-Denny Stadium. Contact Roots Woodruff to reserve space.
• Not conforming to any of the above listed guidelines will result in the immediate dismissal from the stadium by Event Management staff.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches quotes and game facts will be distributed via e-mail to members of the working media. There will be a limited number of printed notes packages available in the media relations work room in the hallway of the press box, but that number will not facilitate the number of media outlets covering the game. Alabama's gameday notes and a flip card are located at each seat throughout the press box.

Alabama's game notes, opponent notes and conference notes will be provided in a PDF via e-mail on Thursday evening. A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks will be available throughout the game.

PARKING

Media parking is located in lots nearby Bryant-Denny Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

PRESS BOX CONNECTIVITY

Wireless internet is available in the Bryant-Denny Stadium press box. In addition, a limited number of ethernet lines also are available.

PRO SCOUTS

Despite severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are issued press credentials. Credentials should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested online. For further details contact Doug Walker at dwalker@ia.ua.edu.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck access and have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). Satellite trucks arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by 12 p.m. (noon) Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Doug Walker or Roots Woodruff. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credential needs for personnel must be included in the online request.

SEC DIGITAL NETWORK

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

All interview requests for head coach Nick Saban are coordinated through Associate A.D. for Football Communications Jeff Purinton at (205) 348-3631 or jpurinton@ia.ua.edu. Coach Saban will meet with the media each Monday preceding a game at 11:45 a.m. (CT) in the Naylor Stone Media Room on the second floor of the Mal M. Moore Athletic Building. Coach Saban will participate in the SEC head coaches weekly teleconference with the other 13 league coaches each Wednesday at 10:35 a.m. (CT). He also will meet with the media immediately following practice on Wednesday afternoon in the Naylor Stone Media Room. In addition, Coach Saban is available by request between noon and 1 p.m. (CT) on Tuesday through Thursday.

PLAYERS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Communications Office and must be requested at least one day in advance. Several players will be available each week following Coach Saban's Monday press conference, if their class schedule permits. Player interviews should be requested through associate SID Josh Maxson. In addition to Monday's press luncheon, players are available following Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Media members are not permitted to call players at any time or talk to players on Sunday, Thursday or Friday.

POSTGAME

The University of Alabama observes and abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media. Coach Saban will conduct his postgame news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game, in the Media Room located on the second floor of the North End Zone complex. His news conference also can be heard in the press box. The Alabama locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the Media Room following Coach Saban's postgame news conference. The opposing coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the South End Zone Media Room adjoining the visiting team locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS

Alabama football practices are open to the media on Monday through Wednesday from the beginning of practice until team or group work begins. Media members should request to have their name placed on a practice pass list for admission to practices.

ALABAMA SATELLITE FEED

Video highlights of Alabama football are available via satellite each Monday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and FTP information.

ROLL TIDE ROLL

Previewing the 2013 Alabama Crimson Tide

The two-time defending BCS national champion Alabama Crimson Tide returns 14 starters and 48 lettermen for the 2013 season with 23 lettermen and six starters on offense, 23 lettermen and seven starters on defense and punter Cody Mandell returning on special teams.

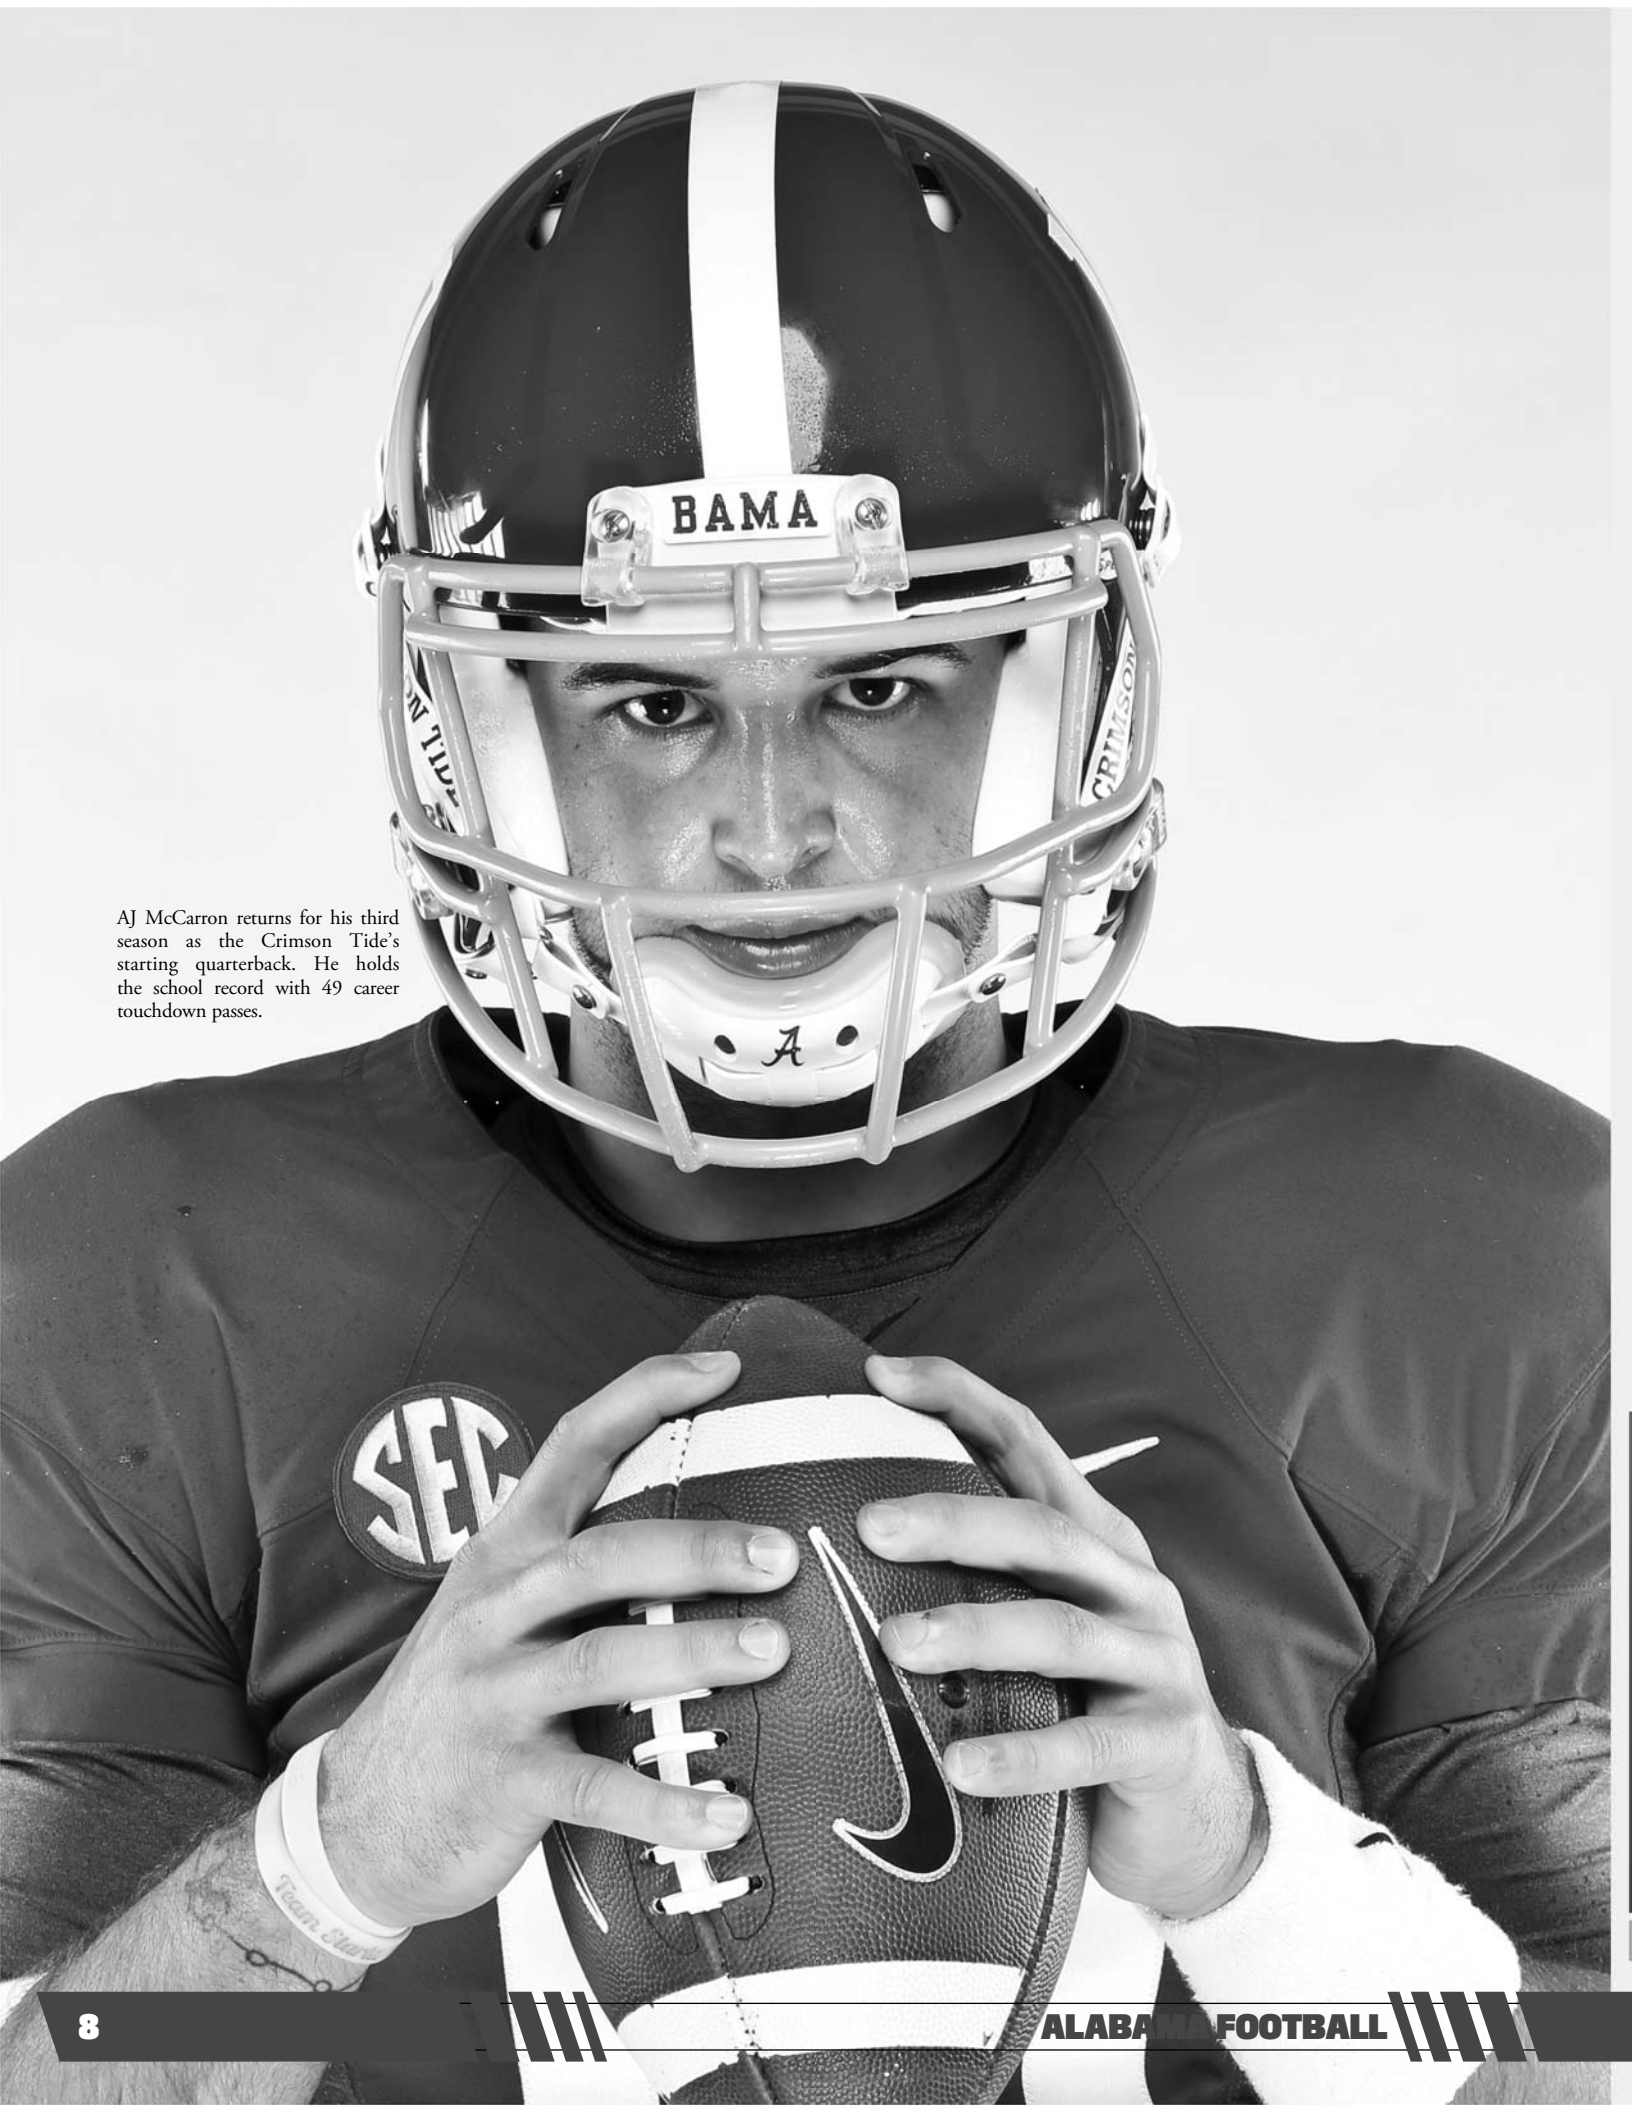
Quarterback AJ McCarron headlines the returning starters on offense after setting the school record in 2012 with 30 touchdowns passes last season with only three interceptions. His entire receiving corps also returns with 2012 Freshman All-American Amari Cooper, senior Kevin Norwood and junior Christion Jones anchoring the unit along with Kenny Bell and Chris Black. Veteran tight end Michael Williams has departed and the Tide must replace three starters along the offensive line, but two awards candidates will look to lead the line: Cyrus Kouandjio at left tackle and Anthony Steen at right guard. Ryan Kelly appears to be in line to replace Barrett Jones at center while Brian Vogler is the probable choice to get the bulk of Williams' duties at tight end.

The defense features at least one returning starter on each level with 76 combined starts among defensive end Ed Stinson, linebackers C.J. Mosley, Trey DePriest and Adrian Hubbard along with defensive backs Deion Belue and HaHa Clinton-Dix. Add veteran safety Vinnie Sunseri and the Tide returns 84 career starts on defense. Alabama's returning defensive personnel accounted for 68 percent of the tackles in 2012 along with 67 percent of the sacks and interceptions.

Veteran punter Cody Mandell is back to anchor the special teams after setting the school single-season record with a 44.3 yards per punt average in 2012, when he booted 14 punts over 50 yards and landed 19 inside the 20-yard line.

Alabama is armed with the nation's No. 1 recruiting class, a group that — combined with the returning roster — gives the Crimson Tide a potent squad that could be primed for a run at another Southeastern Conference title and possible contention for a third straight national championship.

The 2013 schedule provides many challenges and gives Alabama fans some of the most exciting games in college football. The Crimson Tide slate features a marquee non-conference game with Virginia Tech in the season opener at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, a venue known well by Tide fans. After an early bye week, a dangerous trip to Texas A&M will be looming against an Aggie team that handed Alabama its only loss in 2012. The Crimson Tide finally will get to the home opener on Sept. 21 when former Alabama offensive coordinator Jim McElwain brings his Colorado State Rams to Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Crimson Tide's SEC home opener will follow on Sept. 28. After a non-conference tilt against Georgia State, Alabama will travel to Kentucky on Oct. 12 and return home for Arkansas on Oct. 19. The annual Third Saturday in October game against Tennessee actually is on the fourth Saturday in 2013 with the Vols coming to town on Oct. 26. A renewal of one of the country's most fierce rivalries is on tap for Nov. 9, following a bye week, as the Tide will welcome the LSU Tigers to Bryant-Denny Stadium. A trip to Starkville, Miss., to face Mississippi State (Nov. 16) will be followed by a non-conference game against Chattanooga on Nov. 23. The Iron Bowl vs. Auburn is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 30, at Jordan-Hare Stadium in Auburn.



AJ McCarron returns for his third season as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback. He holds the school record with 49 career touchdown passes.

OFFENSE

Alabama's offensive backfield must replace yet another running back who made an early departure to the NFL and three starters from one of the best offensive lines in school history, but record-setting Crimson Tide quarterback AJ McCarron returns for his senior season with a plethora of weapons at his disposal. McCarron won the quarterback job in 2011 and developed his game and confidence throughout the past two seasons, culminating with his offensive MVP performance in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. He followed with a 30-touchdown, three-interception season and another BCS national championship. McCarron led the nation in quarterback efficiency in 2012 with a 175.28 rating and enters the 2013 season with 25-2 career record.

Alabama returns 95 percent of its production from its wide receiving corps in 2013, headlined by sophomore Amari Cooper, who earned Freshman All-America honors and set Tide freshman records with 59 receptions for 1,000 yards and 11 touchdowns. The Tide also boasts returning starters Kevin Norwood and Christion Jones along with veteran speedsters Kenny Bell and junior DeAndrew White, who are both coming off injuries. Departures include Michael Williams and Kelly Johnson at tight end and h-back, but Brian Vogler and Harrison Jones return along with Malcolm Faciane, Kurt Freitag and incoming freshman O.J. Howard.

With Eddie Lacy gone at running back, Alabama will look to sophomore T.J. Yeldon, who rushed for a freshman-record 1,108 yards and 12 touchdowns in 2012. Yeldon averaged 6.3 yards per carry and caught 11 passes for 131 yards and one score. Joining Yeldon is junior Jalston Fowler and sophomore Dee Hart, both coming off knee injuries, and sophomore Kenyan Drake. True freshmen Derrick Henry, Altee Tenpenny, Alvin Kamara and Tyren Jones provide the Tide immense talent and excellent depth at the position.

The offensive line lost three All-Americans (all NFL draft picks) but returns plenty of talent in junior Cyrus Kouandjio and senior Anthony Steen, who have started a combined 39 games at the Capstone. Both Kouandjio and Steen could contend for postseason honors. Sophomore Ryan Kelly appears to have the inside track on the starting job at center while Arie Kouandjio, Kellen Williams and Chad Lindsay are battling at left guard and Austin Shepherd and Leon Brown are fighting for the spot at right tackle. Alabama also boasts a bevy of talented linemen who will battle for roles along the front, most notably Brandon Greene, Isaac Luatua, Alphonse Taylor and several others.

TE	Michael Williams	6-6	269	4L	41 career starts at tight end; 51 career receptions for 503 yards and seven touchdowns

C.J. Mosley returns to anchor Alabama's linebacker corps. He led the 2012 team with 107 tackles and was a finalist for the Butkus Award.

DEFENSE

The Alabama defense proved to be one of the best in college football history in 2011, led the nation in three categories again in 2012, and returns seven starters in 2013. Alabama will have to replace NFL departures in cornerback Dee Milliner (first round, No. 9 overall to the Jets), defensive ends Jesse Williams (fifth round to the Seahawks), Damion Square (Eagles) and safety Robert Lester (Panthers). The Crimson Tide's seven returning starters on defense boast 94 combined career starts and played an integral role on a defense that has allowed an average of 9.1 points per game over the past two seasons. The Tide will have at least one returning starter on each level of the defense, with Ed Stinson anchoring the line of scrimmage while C.J. Mosley, Adrian Hubbard and Trey DePriest direct the linebackers. The returning secondary includes cornerback Deion Belue and safeties Ha Ha Clinton-Dix and Vinnie Sunseri.

Mosely, a Butkus Award finalist from a season ago, is the veteran leader of the entire defense. His 107 tackles in 2012 led the team and were the most by a Crimson Tide defender since 2003. Mosley is one of the best coverage linebackers in college football and has developed into a run-stopping force in the middle. He is joined by Hubbard and DePriest at linebacker along with Xzavier Dickson, who started six games at jack linebacker a season ago but has worked at both defensive end and linebacker. Denzel Devall emerged as a pass-rushing threat as 2012 progressed and continued that improvement in the offseason, while fellow sophomore Reggie Ragland has made strides in his development at inside linebacker. Tana Patrick is a veteran who is looking for his opportunity as a senior while Ryan Anderson and Dillon Lee are underclassmen with tremendous potential.

The Alabama secondary once again must overcome the loss of a first round draft pick as Milliner became the fifth Crimson Tide defensive back drafted in the first two rounds over the past five years. Clinton-Dix led Alabama with five interceptions in 2012, including one in each of the final three contests while Sunseri started eight games at safety and nickel back and had 54 tackles. Belue returns for his second season as a starter at cornerback while senior John Fulton and sophomore Geno Smith look to step into the spot vacated by Milliner. Smith emerged late in his freshman season as the Tide's third cornerback. The safety position is loaded with talent as sophomore Landon Collins joins senior Nick Perry and junior Jarrick Williams in a battle for a spot at safety along with work in the Tide's complex substitution packages. Several young cornerbacks, including Bradley Sylve and Jabriel Washington, will battle for time along with some talented incoming freshmen.

The defensive front will be occupied by Stinson, who boasts 36 career games played and 16 starts, and several talented youngsters fighting for playing time. Jeoffrey Pagan saw significant action in 2012 and could push for the starting job at end opposite Stinson. Junior Brandon Ivory and sophomore Darren Lake project to fill the role of the departed Williams. LaMichael Fanning and Davlin Tomlinson have made strides along the defensive front. Both players figure to push for an expanded role in the Crimson Tide defensive line rotation. Korren Kirven and Dakota Ball are coming off redshirt seasons and will look to add depth along with Wilson Love and Anthony Orr.

Cody Mandell set an Alabama single-season record in 2012, averaging 44.3 yards per punt.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Alabama will need several first-time starters to step up and fill roles on special teams in 2013. Senior punter Cody Mandell headlines the returning specialists, as the Tide must replace three-year starters Jeremy Shelley (place-kicker) and Carson Tinker (long snapper). The Crimson Tide will feature an experienced return unit with both Christion Jones and Cyrus Jones back in the fold for 2013. Senior Cade Foster will reprise his role on kickoffs while battling to be Alabama's place-kicker. AJ McCarron also returns as the holder, with Vinnie Sunseri backing him up.

Mandell will handle the punting duties for the fourth straight season, after setting an Alabama single-season record in 2012 with a 44.3-yard average on 50 punts. The veteran had a long of 61 yards with 14 kicks of 50 yards or more while landing 19 punts inside the 20-yard line. In 2011, Mandell averaged 39.5 on 39 kicks, including 17 fair catches, 11 inside the 20-yard line and two over 50 yards. The 2010 season saw Mandell land 13 punts inside the 20-yard line with nine over 50 yards.

Foster, who has handled long-range field goals and kickoffs the past three seasons, will look to secure all of the place-kicking duties in 2013. He should get a stiff challenge from freshman Adam Griffith. Foster is 13 of 27 on field goals during his Crimson Tide career, including 8 of 15 from 40-49 yards and 3 of 10 over 50 yards. Griffith was the nation's No. 1 place-kicker coming out of Calhoun (Ga.) High School.

The Jones duo handled most of Alabama's return duties in 2012. Christion returned 21 punts for a 10.1-yard average while Cyrus brought back eight punts for a 7.6-yard average. The pair also got the bulk of the work on kickoff returns. Cyrus returned 10 kickoffs for 250 yards (25.0 ypr) with a long of 41 yards while Christion averaged 26.6 yards on eight returns, including a 99-yard touchdown against Mississippi. There are several talented players who will push the Joneses for returning duties in 2013, including Dee Hart, DeAndrew White, Landon Collins and Kevin Norwood, plus several other underclassmen and newcomers.

With Tinker off to the NFL, Alabama signed one of the top snappers in the nation, Cole Mazza, to a scholarship in 2013. Mazza will come in to compete for the starting job with senior MK Taylor and sophomore Alex Harrelson.

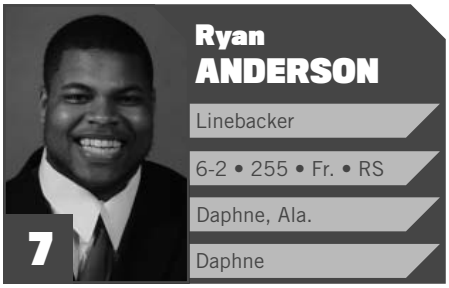
SECTION 2



Outlook:
Coming off of a redshirt season with added knowledge and conditioning … could challenge for time at outside linebacker.

2012 (Freshman):
Redshirted during his first season at The University of Alabama.

High School and Personal Data:
Came to the Capstone as one of the fastest risers in the class of 2012 … a five-star prospect by 247sports.com, which ranked him as the nation's No. 19 overall prospect and the No. 1 outside linebacker … 247sports.com also ranked him as the No. 2 player in Alabama … ranked 93rd in the ESPNU 150 and the site's No. 7 outside linebacker … earned four stars from ESPNU, Scout.com and Rivals.com … listed at No. 98 in the Rivals100 as well as the No. 6 outside linebacker … Scout.com ranked him as the No. 22 defensive end prospect … No. 5 in the Mobile Press-Register's Elite 18 and No. 33 in the Super Southeast 120 … a SuperPrep All-American and the publication's No. 25 linebacker … also listed as the No. 8 player in Alabama by SuperPrep … PrepStar All-Southeast Region … a member of the Alabama Sports Writers Association's Super 12 … an ASWA 6A All-State selection … No. 3 on the Birmingham News Super Seniors list … turned in a strong showing at the Alabama/Mississippi All-Star Game … coached by Glenn Vickery at Daphne … had 105 tackles and 12 sacks as a senior in 2011 … posted 75 stops and 14.5 sacks as a junior, helping Daphne win the state championship … second cousin of former Alabama standout and current Cincinnati Bengal, Wallace Gilberry … teammate of Alabama's T.J. Yeldon at Daphne High School … chose Alabama over Auburn, Florida State, Tennessee and Illinois.

Outlook:
Comes off of a redshirt season and could challenge for repetitions along the defensive line in 2013.

2012 (Freshman):
Redshirted during his first season at the Capstone.

High School and Personal Data:
Was an outstanding defensive line prospect for the 2012 class … turned in a solid effort as a starting defensive tackle in the Under Armour All-America Game … a four-star prospect by MaxPrep's Tom Lemming … three-star defensive lineman by Rivals.com, Scout.com, 247sports.com and ESPNU … Scout.com ranked him as the nation's No. 27 defensive tackle prospect … Rivals.com rated him No. 29 among defensive tackles and the No. 28 player in the state of Georgia … ESPNU considered him the No. 27 defensive tackle, 152nd among players in the Southeast and No. 35 in Georgia … 247sports.com ranked Ball as the No. 36 defensive tackle and the No. 35 player in Georgia … PrepStar All-Southeast Region … Georgia Sports Writers Association AA All-State selection as a senior, when he made 73 tackles with 17 tackles for loss, seven sacks, 38 quarterback hurries, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries, including one he returned for a touchdown … coached by Jeff Shifflett at Pepperell High School … chose Alabama over Georgia, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Clemson and South Carolina.

Outlook:
Brings outstanding speed and experience to the wide receiver position ... has played in 37 career games with seven starts … 36 career receptions for 712 yards and five touchdowns … averaging a team-best 19.8 yards per catch, including 25.4 per catch in 2012.

2012 (Junior):
Played 12 games and started three, totaling 17 receptions for 431 yards and three touchdowns ... 12 of his 17 receptions went for first downs ... nine of his 17 grabs (53 percent) were 15-yards or longer ... eight receptions of 29-plus yards (85, 57, 54, 44, 39, 34, 33 and 29) ... led the team with a 25.4 yards per catch average ... posted career highs in receiving yards (431) and touchdowns (three) ... missed the SEC Championship Game and the Discover BCS National Championship Game due to a broken left leg suffered against Auburn. Michigan: Caught two passes for 26 yards, with a long reception of 19 in win against No. 8 Michigan. Arkansas: Caught two passes for 12 yards in win at Fayetteville. Florida Atlantic: His only reception of the game came in a big way, as he hauled in a career-long, 85-yard reception for touchdown on game's first possession. Mississippi: Caught two passes for 15 yards in win over the Rebels. Missouri: Had two receptions for 46 yards, including a long of 44. Tennessee: Latched onto two passes for 68 yards, including a 39-yard touchdown. Mississippi State: Streaked into the end zone on a 57-yard strike from AJ McCarron for his only catch of the game ... that grab put the Tide

SNAPSHOTS ...
Kenny Ball gives the Tide offense a deep threat, after catching 17 passes for a league-best 25.4 yards per catch average and three touchdowns in 2012.

up 14-0 after two possessions, en route to 38-7 win over previously undefeated Bulldogs. NICK SABAN

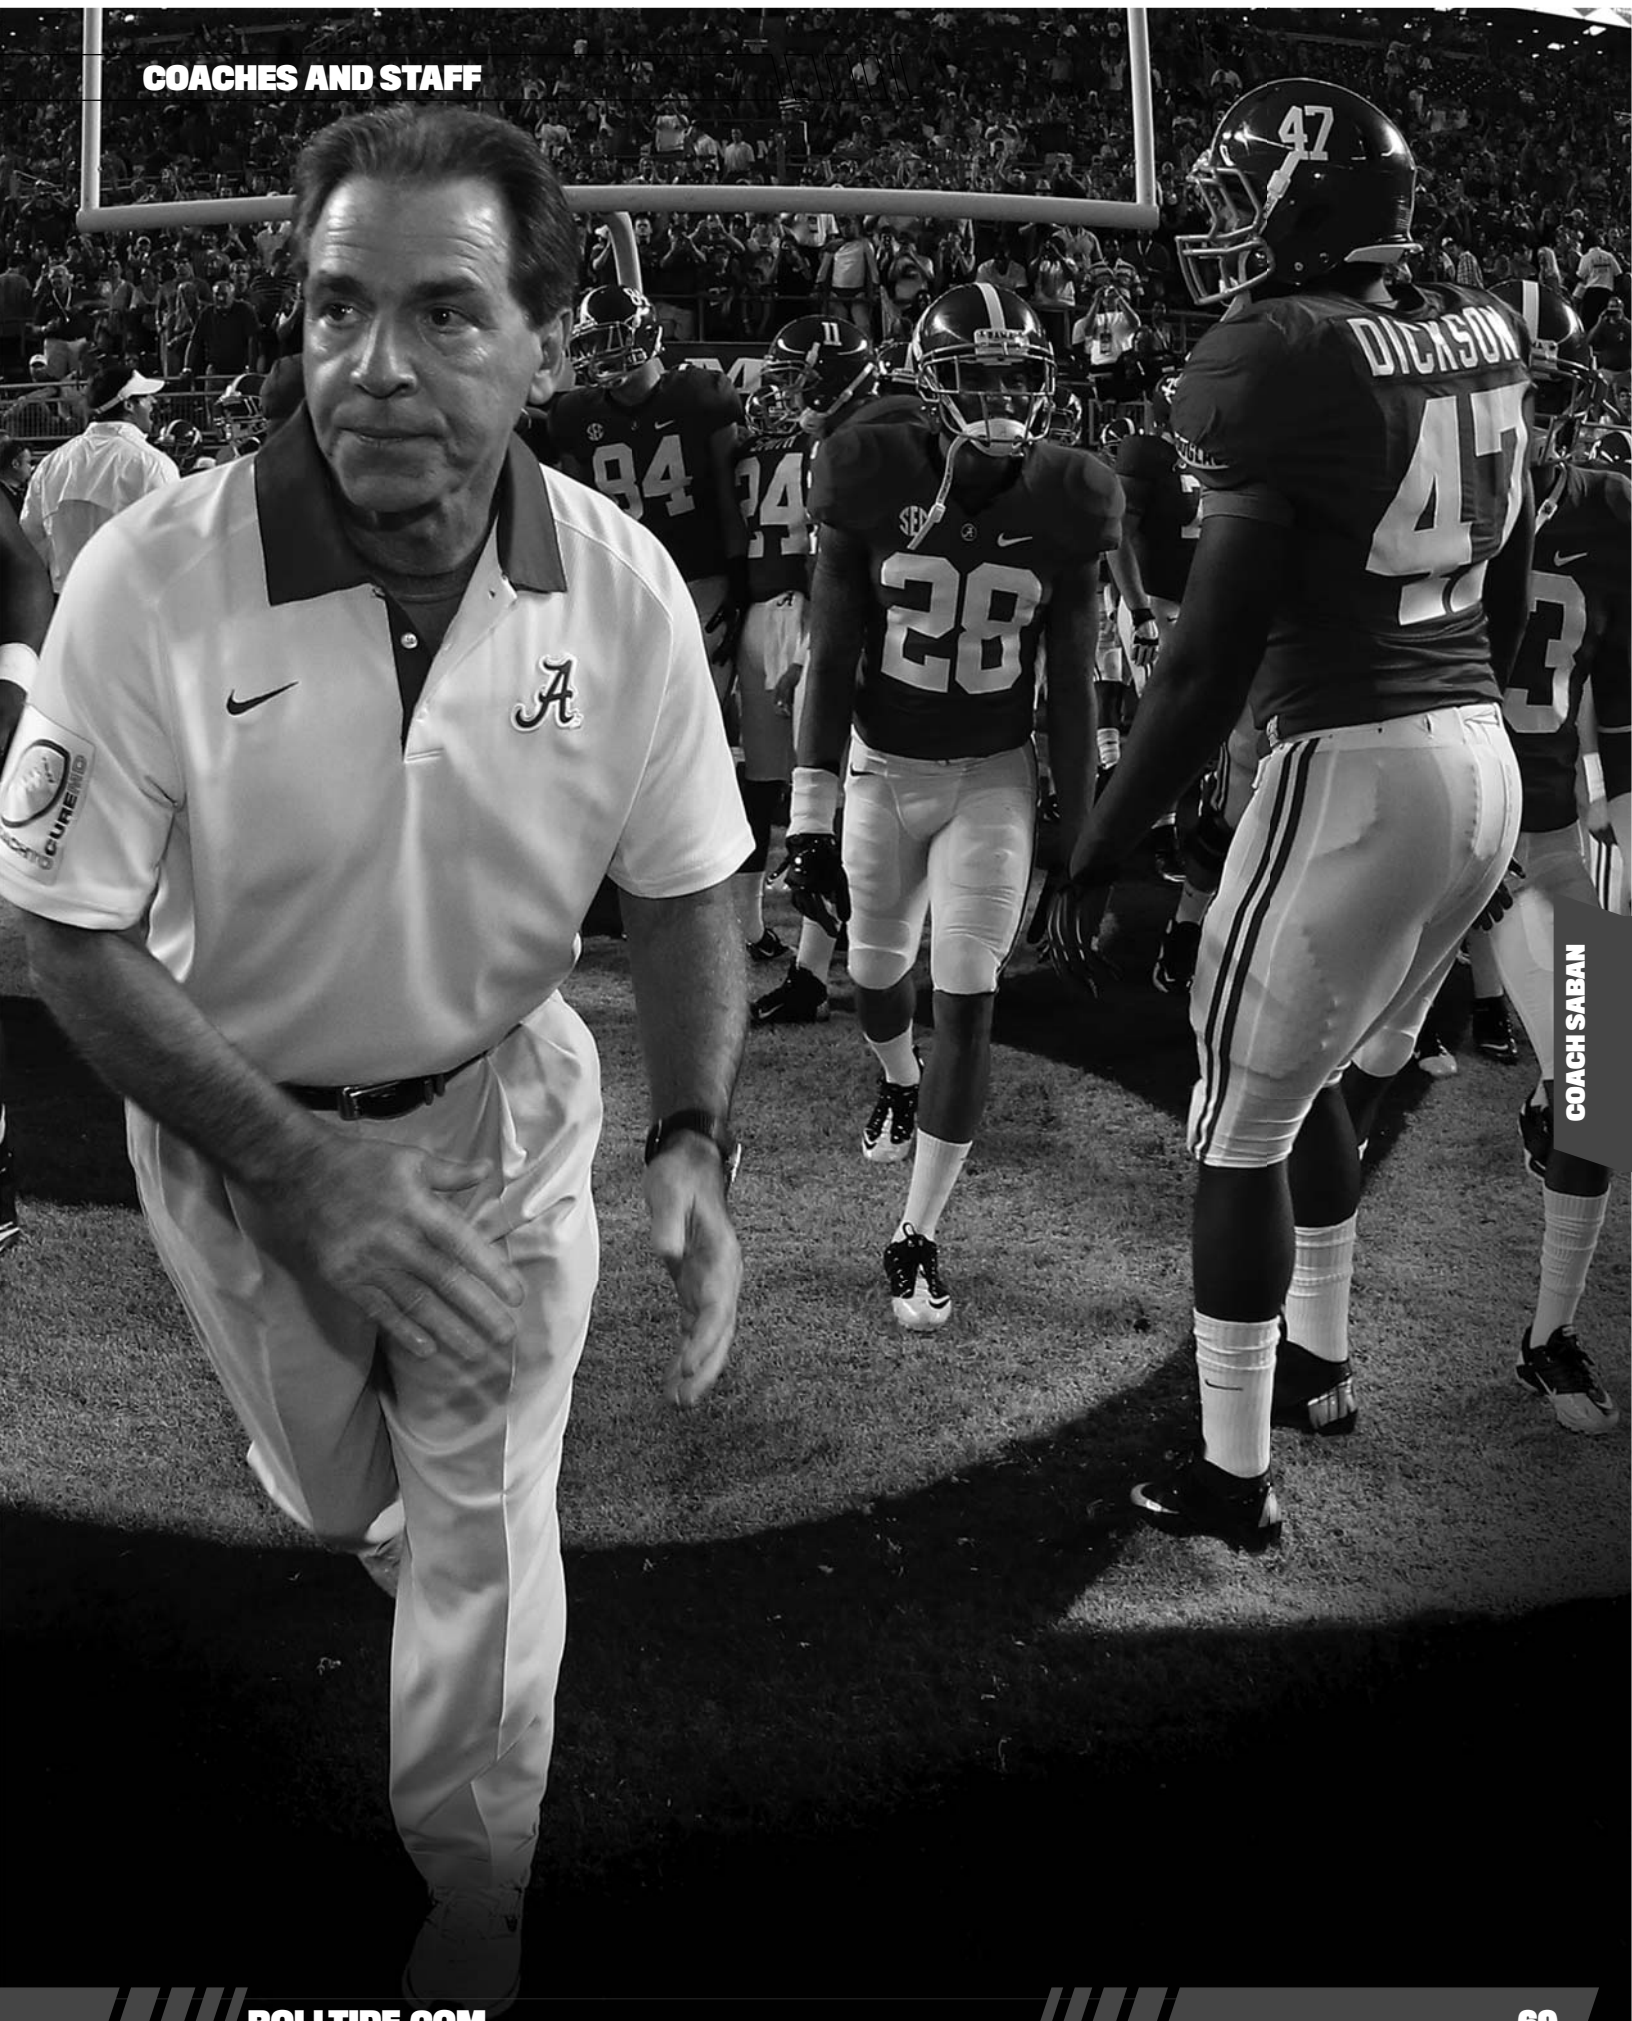
A MAN OF VISION WHO HAS A PROVEN RECORD OF CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS, HEAD COACH NICK SABAN HAS RETURNED THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA TO THE TOP OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL LANDSCAPE WITH HIS COMMITMENT TO BUILDING THE TOTAL PROGRAM. AFTER THE MOST RECENT VICTORY OVER NOTRE DAME IN THE BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME ON JANUARY 7, 2013, SABAN JOINED FRANK LEAHY, BEAR BRYANT AND JOHN MCKAY AS THE ONLY COACHES TO WIN FOUR NATIONAL TITLES IN THE MODERN ERA.

Entering his seventh season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in the school's 13th, 14th and 15th national championships and the foundation has been set to yield long-term success for the Crimson Tide. A five-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities have sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.



COACH SABAN

Saban has compiled a 154-55-1 (.737) record as a college head coach and has gone 61-7 (.897) in the past five seasons in Tuscaloosa, which includes a 35-5 mark in regular-season conference play. In 2012, the Tide reached the 10-win milestone for the fifth consecutive season under Saban. With another SEC Championship win and BCS National Championship Game victory in 2012, Saban is 8-1 all-time in conference or national championship games entering the 2013 season.

He is the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships and has won four titles in his last eight years of coaching college football. Saban is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years, joining Frank Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He is also the fourth coach in the poll era to win four national championships (Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant, John McKay of Southern California and Leahy).

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as one of the most dominant unit in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC championship (the most in league history) with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to earn the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year, his third such honor in the last four years. Under Saban's guidance, Alabama boasts a 978 APR score that ranked 11th nationally in 2012 and second in the SEC. The Crimson Tide also have a 75 percent graduation rate, which is among the best in the nation.

The Alabama defense led the nation in rush defense (76.4 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg), and scoring defense (10.9 ppg) in 2012. The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.7 points per game and 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game. The Crimson Tide set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012 and extended a streak of consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25 to 81 weeks, the longest in school history.

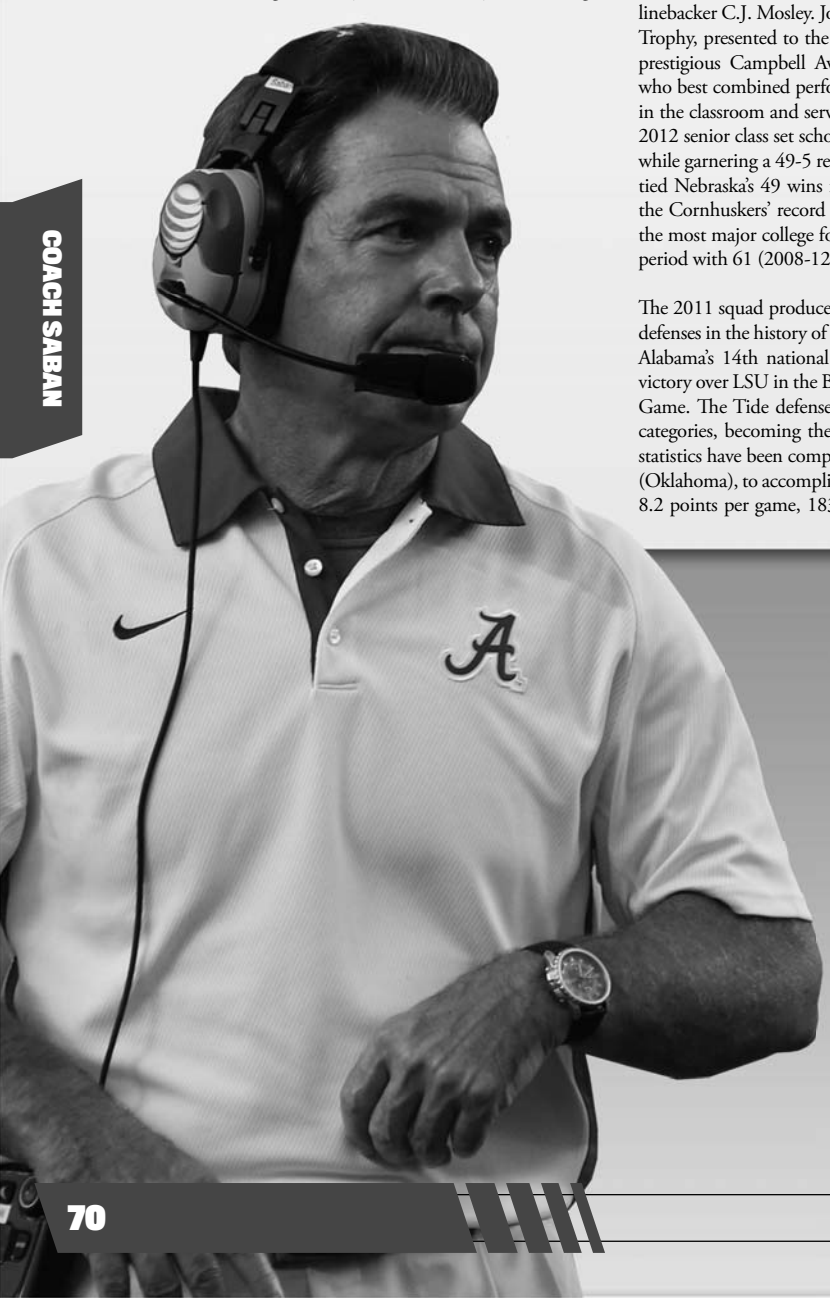
The Crimson Tide featured four first team All-Americans in 2012, including two along the offensive line in center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker C.J. Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy, presented to the nation's best center, and the prestigious Campbell Award, as the student-athlete who best combined performance on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set school and SEC records for wins while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's 49 wins from 1994-97. It also broke the Cornhuskers' record (60 wins from 1993-97) for the most major college football victories in a five-year period with 61 (2008-12).

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics have been compiled, and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma), to accomplish that feat. UA allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and a 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

Saban's 2011 senior class won 48 games over the span of four seasons (2008-11). Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received the Tide's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following a tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also received the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced an Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Five players were named first team All-SEC by either the AP or the league coaches, while six more earned second team All-SEC honors. Most impressively, two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Jones) were named first team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National-Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

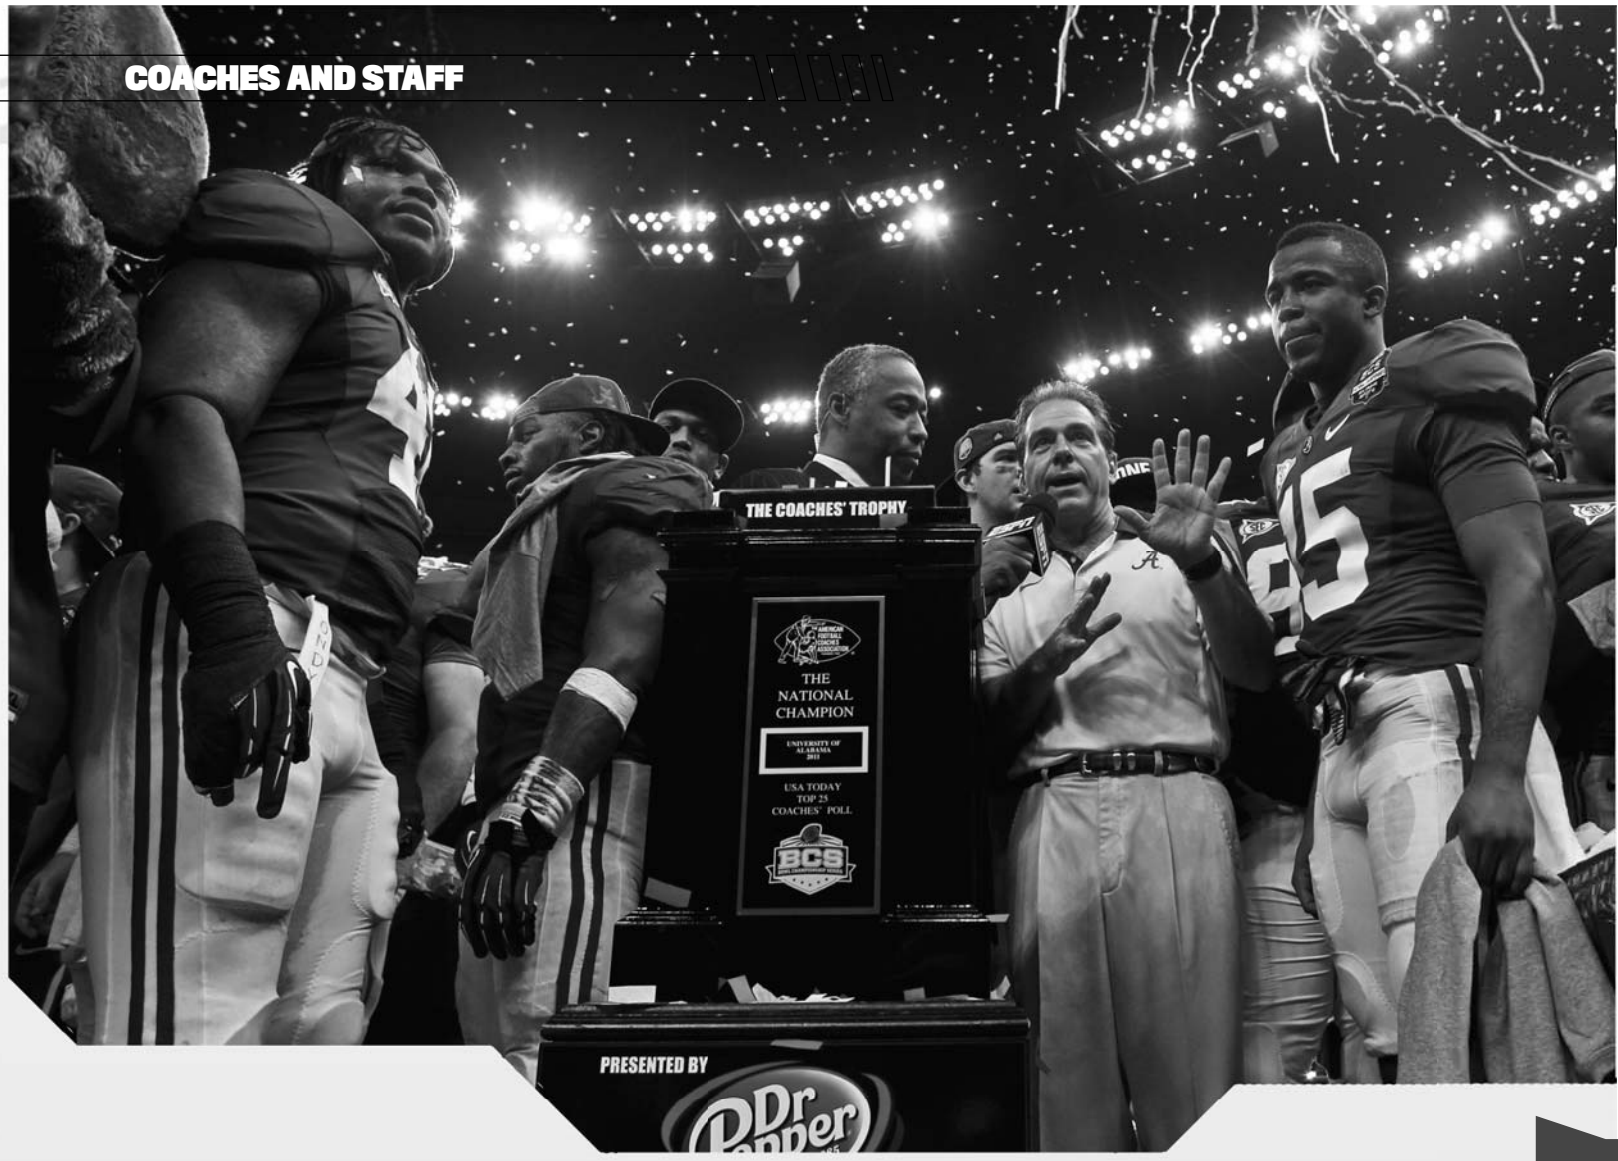
The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history, as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas 37-21 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game, as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.



AMONG THE BEST EVER

Only four coaches in the modern poll era of college football have won four or more national championships during their careers.

Coach	School(s)	Championship Years
Nick Saban	LSU & Alabama	2004, 2009, 2011-12
Paul "Bear" Bryant	Alabama	1961, 1964-65, 1973, 1978-79
Frank Leahy	Notre Dame	1943, 1946-47, 1949
John McKay	Southern California	1962, 1967, 1972, 1974



On December 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad also was prominent when it came to other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and six players earned first-team AP All-America status — a college football record.

After the perfect 2009 season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who already had graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees at the time of the bowl game.

Saban's first Alabama team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and – behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers – the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the 2008 regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN Awards Show in Orlando and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has yet to have a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Off the field, the focus on academics by Saban and his staff made an immediate impact as the 2007 team put together one of the finest academic fall semesters in school history. The freshman class set a solid foundation for their future at Alabama as they led the way with an impressive combined grade-point average of 3.10 in the fall.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU that produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC Western Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games, with two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. LSU constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003) while at LSU.

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Prior to his stint at Miami, Saban's impact on the LSU program transcended the success on the field. His commitment to building the total program, placing education first and instilling discipline with responsibility on and off the field transformed the Tigers into a force on the national stage. LSU produced 84 Academic all-SEC honorees in Saban's five seasons, including 25 members of the 2003 national championship squad. LSU's graduation rate for football players improved dramatically under his watch and two players – offensive tackle Rodney Reed (2002 and 2003) and offensive lineman Rudy Niswanger (2004) – earned first team Academic All-America honors. Linebacker Bradie James earned a postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation (2003).

Saban also spearheaded a $15 million fundraising effort to fund a new academic center for student-athletes at LSU, and he and his players were active in community involvement in the Baton Rouge area, taking part in community service projects, visiting schools to mentor children, and taking time to visit local hospitals on a regular basis. More than 50 of Saban's LSU players earned their college degrees, in addition to 28 who were selected in the NFL draft (including seven in both 2004 and 2006).

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons ranked third among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and current LSU head coach Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC championships.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Home victories over Tennessee, Mississippi State and Alabama highlighted that season, along with a key road win at Mississippi.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986, with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as the Tigers outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. LSU won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the 2001 season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second consecutive New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the midseason loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the 2003 SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the BCS Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting the Sooners to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

Saban's final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Over its final six games, the 2004 LSU defense allowed only 12 points in the second half on the way to a berth in the Capital One Bowl against Iowa – LSU's fourth consecutive January bowl berth (a first for the Tiger program).

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking, finishing in a tie for second place in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. Michigan State led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 ypg) and total defense (299.0 ypg) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The MSU offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led the Michigan State to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

"I THINK EVERYBODY SHOULD TAKE THE ATTITUDE THAT WE'RE WORKING TO BE A CHAMPION, THAT WE WANT TO BE A CHAMPION IN EVERYTHING THAT WE DO. EVERY CHOICE, EVERY DECISION, EVERYTHING THAT WE DO EVERY DAY, WE WANT TO BE A CHAMPION."

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and also was heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22 picks.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983-87. Saban played an integral part in helping the Spartans make three postseason bowl appearances, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. Michigan State led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, allowing only 61.2 yards per game, and ranked second in scoring defense, permitting only 12.4 points per game.

A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

Saban co-authored Tiger Turnaround in 2001, documenting his first two years as head coach at LSU. He then co-authored How Good Do You Want to Be? in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

In addition to their work as fundraisers for LSU's Student-Athlete Academic Center, the Sabans supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick Saban raised more than $100,000 per year.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Fund, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, more than $2.5 million has been distributed to more than 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Fund. The Sabans also built 14 homes with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity following the April 27, 2011, tornado that stuck Tuscaloosa. In receiving the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game. He designated the gift for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for the University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating 2011 storm, Nick and Terry visited shelters, where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans have joined with Project Team Up in helping to rebuild homes lost in the tornado.

"When we travel throughout the state, we recognize names and faces who share the same goal: to make the University of Alabama the very best it can be in every regard, on the field, in the classroom and in the eyes of the nation one day at a time. Thank you to all of the supporters and the University of Alabama community. Roll Tide!"

– TERRY SABAN

Terry Saban plays a vital role in many community outreach programs. She personally collected money on the Quad before 2007's A-Day game for the Enterprise tornado relief fund. Prior to the 2008 A-Day game, Terry helped collect money for the university's libraries. In June of 2008, Nick and Terry pledged $1 million to the university's scholarship fund and earmarked it for first-generation college students. Terry also plays an important role in the planning of many of the events for causes including the Nick's Kids Fund. Her eagerness to give back and her tireless devotion to help others is what makes Terry Saban one of the most admired members of the Crimson Tide family.

Most recently, Terry has been involved with Project Team Up, assisting with the rebuilding process from the tornado.

Greg Brown joined the Alabama coaching staff in January of 2013 after spending two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Colorado. A 15-year NFL coaching veteran, Brown coaches the secondary for the Crimson Tide.

Brown spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the defensive coordinator at the University of Colorado, his third-coaching stint with the Buffaloes. He led a young and inexperienced CU defense that showed improvement during his tenure but was plagued with injuries that forced the Buffs to play converted receivers and walk-ons.

As the co-defensive coordinator at the University of Arizona in 2010, Brown helped the Wildcats to the nation's Top 25 for the first time in over a decade. Brown returned to CU in January 2006, named to the staff of Colorado head coach Dan Hawkins following the completion of the 2005 National Football League season. From 2006-09 Brown served as Colorado's secondary coach and the last three as defensive passing-game coordinator.

In his four seasons during his second stint at Colorado, Brown helped tutor Terrence Wheatley, developing him into a first team All-Big 12 performer and a second-round NFL draft pick by the New England Patriots. He also tutored a pair of young cornerbacks in Jimmy Smith and Jalil Brown, with Smith a two-time All-Big 12 performer.

In 2005, Brown wrapped up his fourth and final year as a defensive assistant with the NFL's New Orleans Saints under coach Jim Haslett. The Saints 2005 pass defense ranked third in the entire NFL, allowing a paltry 178 yards per game.

Brown rejoined the Atlanta Falcons as secondary coach for the 2000 and 2001 seasons after spending the 1999 campaign as the defensive backs coach for the San Francisco 49ers. A 15-year NFL coaching veteran, developing top notch defensive backs became his specialty as he was often sought after for new coaching staffs around the league, working with six different teams in his professional career.

He spent the 1995-96 seasons as the secondary coach for San Diego, with the Chargers finishing in the top five both years in fewest yards allowed per completion. Brown also coached Rodney Harrison, who eventually would become one of the league's top safeties. He moved on to the Tennessee Oilers, coaching the secondary in both 1997 and 1998. He again coached three of the top defensive backs in the game: cornerback Samari Rolle and safeties Blaine Bishop and All-Pro Marcus Robertson.

In his second stint at Colorado, Brown coached the secondary for three years (1991-93) under coach Hall of Fame coach Bill McCartney, tutoring a pair of Jim Thorpe Award winners during his first days at CU: cornerbacks Deon Figures (the 1992 winner) and Chris Hudson (the 1994 winner). Colorado led the nation in pass completion defense and the Big Eight in pass defense in 1992. Brown joined the CU staff days after the Buffs won their first national championship (January 7, 1991). He returned to the NFL in 1994, joining the Atlanta staff as defensive backs coach. The Falcons finished second that season in the league with 23 interceptions.

Brown began his coaching career in 1981 as a graduate assistant at the University of Texas-El Paso, his alma mater, where he worked with the secondary. The following year, 1982, he came back to the state of Colorado, serving as a defensive coach at Green Mountain High School in Lakewood.

An inital move to the professional ranks came the following spring, with Brown joining the staff of the Denver Gold of the United States Football League (USFL). He coached the secondary for the Gold for two seasons (1983, 1984) before moving on to the National Football League for the first time in the summer of 1984, joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers staff. For the Bucs, he coached three different positions: defensive quality control (1984), offensive quality control (1985) and the U-backs/tight ends (1986).

Brown returned to the college game in 1987, coaching the defensive backs for two seasons at the University of Wyoming before doing the same at Purdue for the 1989 and 1990 campaigns. He then returned home to Colorado for a second time in joining McCartney's staff in 1991.

He graduated from UTEP in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in education (history/physical education). At UTEP, Brown lettered twice at cornerback under Bill Michael, and received the Coca-Cola Hold Helmet Award for his play against San Diego State. He earned his A.A. degree from Glendale (Ariz.) Junior College in 1978.

Brown graduated from Arvada (Colo.) High School, where he lettered in both football and track. His father, Irv Brown, is a long-time Denver radio personality and the former head baseball coach and one-time assistant football coach at the University of Colorado. He is married to the former Stacie Bible, and the couple has two daughters (Hannah and Grace).

CLEMSON 1999-2006

ALABAMA 2007-

Burton Burns is in his seventh season with the Alabama Crimson Tide football program in 2013 as associate head coach and running backs coach. The New Orleans native is regarded as one of the best coaches in college football and was named the Football Scoop Running Backs Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Over 15 seasons as a college assistant coach, Burns has produced versatile running backs who have been effective in every phase of the game. His players have proven to be equally effective on the ground and in the passing game. Few in college football can say they have coached a Heisman Trophy finalist, but Burns can claim a pair dating back to the 2009 season, including the 2009 recipient Mark Ingram and 2011 finalist Trent Richardson.

Burns turned in another masterful coaching job in 2012. As injuries hammered away at the Tide's depth at running back, junior Eddie Lacy and true freshman T.J. Yeldon stepped to the forefront and combined to rush for 2,430 yards and 29 rushing touchdowns (32 total touchdowns). The pair became the first Alabama running backs to rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. UA ranked 16th nationally in rushing and second in the SEC with an average of 227.5 yards per game.

Under Burns, the 2011 Crimson Tide rushing offense ranked 16th in the nation and first in the Southeastern Conference, collecting 214.5 yards per game. In addition to being a Heisman Trophy finalist, Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, ranking fifth in the nation and first in the league with 129.2 yards on the ground per game. Richardson's 21 rushing touchdowns, set the school record and tied for second in SEC history. He equaled the school and SEC record with 24 total touchdowns. Lacy finished the 2011 season ninth in the SEC with 56.2 rushing yards per game and seven TDs.

In 2010, Alabama's ground game accumulated 2,378 yards to rank 29th in the country. Playing in only 11 games each, Ingram led the way with 875 yards and 13 scores followed by Richardson's 700 yards with six touchdowns. With two scores against Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl, Ingram set the Alabama career rushing touchdown record at 42. He finished his career fourth on the career rushing yardage list with 3,261 yards in three seasons. Both Ingram and Richardson were explosive in the passing game as well. Richardson was fourth on the 2011 team with 266 yards on 23 catches (4 TDs), while Ingram added 21 catches for 282 yards and a touchdown.

Under Burns' guidance in 2009, Ingram was awarded Alabama's first Heisman Trophy and earned unanimous All-America honors. Ingram set the school's single-season rushing record with 1,658 yards and 17 touchdowns while adding 32 receptions for 334 yards and three scores. Richardson, a true freshman, was the team's second-leading rusher (642 yards, 6 TD) and was a Freshman All-SEC selection. In the BCS Championship Game against Texas, Ingram and Richardson both rushed for 100-plus yards to help lead Alabama to the school's 13th title.

Roy Upchurch added valuable production in 2009, especially on third downs. He earned an invite to the prestigious Senior Bowl at the conclusion of the season.

Burns also developed one of the nation's strongest running games in 2008, as Alabama finished third in the SEC and 30th nationally with an average of 184.6 rushing yards per game. Glen Coffee, a first team All-SEC selection and third-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, led the way with 1,383 yards on the ground. That single-season total tied for second in school history and was third in the conference. Ingram was eighth in the SEC in rushing (728 yards), captured Freshman All-SEC honors and set a Tide rookie record with 12 rushing scores.

BURNS FAMILY

In his first year at Alabama (2007), Burns helped first-year tailback Terry Grant set school records for rushing yards (891) and touchdowns (8) by a freshman. Grant was a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week honoree and was named to the Freshman All-SEC Team as well as Sporting News Freshman All-America team (honorable mention).

An assistant coach at Clemson for eight seasons before coming to Alabama, Burns was a major factor in producing six of the top 10 offenses in Clemson history. As running backs coach for the Tigers. Burns tutored star runners such as 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year James Davis, 2006 freshman record-setter C.J. Spiller, Reggie Merriweather, Travis Zachery and Duane Coleman at Clemson, plus former New York Jets back Jerald Sowell at Tulane. In 2006, Davis led the Tigers with 1,187 rushing yards on 203 carries and scored 17 touchdowns, while Spiller had 938 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. The Tigers averaged 5.7 yards per carry during the 2006 regular season.

Burns spent eight seasons with head coach Tommy Bowden at Clemson, after a four-year stint at Tulane that concluded with a 12-0 season in 1998. He logged nine seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Saint Augustine High School in New Orleans before joining Bowden's staff at Tulane. Burns helped lead Saint Augustine to district titles in 1987, 1992 and 1993, his second stint at the school. His first experience as a coach also was at Saint Augustine, where he served as an assistant from 1977-79 and helped the school win three other district championships on the way to consecutive state titles in 1978-79. Burns also coached at New Orleans' Booker T. Washington High School in 1980 before a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., from 1981-85.

As a player, Burns played fullback (1971-75) at Nebraska under head coach Tom Osborne. A member of three Cornhusker teams that won at least nine games, Burns participated in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1976. Burns is married to the former Connie Winder. The couple has three daughters, Amber, Christy and Erin, and a son Damon. They have one granddaughter, Mackenzie, and a son-in-law Sylvester Anderson.

Mario Cristobal is in his first season on the Alabama coaching staff as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach, after joining the Crimson Tide in February of 2013. He had been the head coach at Florida International University (FIU) for six years (2007-12) before joining Alabama after a brief stay at his alma mater, Miami.

During his six years at the helm of the FIU program, Cristobal was regarded as one of the country's top young college football coaches and was the architect of a successful program that went to back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011. The 2011 season was the most successful year in program history with the school capturing a program-record eight victories during the regular season, along with milestone wins on the road at eventual Co-BIG EAST Champion Louisville and at home against Conference USA power Central Florida.

FIU began its historic run during the 2010 season, when Cristobal led FIU to its first Sun Belt Conference championship and a bowl victory over MAC champion Toledo. For his efforts, Cristobal was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. Named the second head football coach in FIU history on Dec. 19, 2006, Cristobal implemented his philosophy of hard work and dedication that paid quick dividends both on the field and in the classroom. During his time at FIU, Cristobal also proved to be an effective recruiter, with consecutive recruiting classes in 2011 and 2012 that were regarded among the best in the Sun Belt Conference. Cristobal's teams at FIU produced such NFL talent as third-round pick T. Y. Hilton, second-round selection Jonthan Cyprien and Anthony Gaitor.

Prior to accepting the head coaching job at FIU, Cristobal coached at the University of Miami for three years under head coach Larry Coker. The Hurricanes compiled a 24-12 record in that time, with appearances in the 2004 and 2005 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowls and the 2006 Micron PC Bowl. Cristobal coached Miami's tight ends in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, tutoring 2005 Buffalo Bills third-round pick Kevin Everett, 2006 free-agent signee Buck Ortega and 2007 Chicago Bears first-round selection Greg Olsen.

In 2006, Cristobal took over a Miami offensive line that featured four new starters, including a true sophomore at left tackle and a true freshman at right tackle. Despite coaching a unit wrought with inexperience and riddled by injuries throughout the season, the Hurricanes offense saw a 39 percent decrease in sacks allowed from 36 to 22, only seven of which Cristobal's line was deemed responsible. Following that season, junior guard Derrick Morse was selected honorable mention All-ACC and true freshman tackle Jason Fox was named a second team Freshman All-American by Rivals.com. Fox was a fourth-round draft pick of the Detroit Lions in 2010.

While coaching at Rutgers from 2001-03 Cristobal helped set the table for one of the biggest success stories in the past 30 years of college football. Cristobal worked under head coach Greg Schiano, coaching the Rutgers offensive tackles and tight ends for two seasons before shifting his focus solely to the offensive line in 2003.

Cristobal was a critical factor in Rutgers' resurgence to competitiveness and helped lay the foundation in recruiting and coaching for a program that went from obscurity to college football's upper echelon in a matter of five years. During Cristobal's tenure at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights improved from records of 2-9 and 1-11 to a 5-7 mark in 2003, the school's best record since 1998. One of Cristobal's most accomplished pupils was tight end L.J. Smith, the Philadelphia Eagles' second-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft and an eventual starter.

Cristobal began his coaching career in 1998, when he joined the Miami staff as a graduate assistant, working with the Hurricanes for three seasons (1998-2000) under head coach Butch Davis. He helped his alma mater compile a 29-8 record while winning three bowls and a pair of BIG EAST Conference championships in that time.

A four-year letterwinner for the University of Miami from 1988-92, Cristobal played for Hall of Fame coach Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson. During his four years, the Hurricanes won a pair of national championships (1989 and 1991) while playing in two Sugar Bowls, one Cotton Bowl and an Orange Bowl. Cristobal was a first team All-Big East selection as an offensive tackle in 1992.

Following his college playing career, Cristobal signed a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos in 1994. He played for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1995 and 1996.

The Miami native was a prep standout at Christopher Columbus High School. He graduated from Miami in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and later earned a master's degree from Miami in 2001. Cristobal and his wife Jessica were married in June of 2006 and have two sons (Mario Mateo and Rocco).

Billy Napier returned to the Alabama coaching staff on March 1, 2013, as wide receivers coach. Napier joined the Crimson Tide staff after serving as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State in 2012 for former Tide offensive coordinator Jim McElwain.

Napier returned to the Capstone in March to replace Mike Groh, who accepted an assistant coaching job with the Chicago Bears.

Injuries forced Napier to go deep down the bench looking for quarterbacks during his one season in Fort Collins. The Rams saw three quarterbacks play significant snaps as the starter with Garrett Grayson going down early in the season, M.J. McPeek following two weeks later forcing redshirt freshman Conner Smith into action. The trio combined to throw for 2,520 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 as Colorado State won three of their final five games.

Napier spent the 2011 season on the Alabama staff as an offensive analyst, helping the Crimson Tide win the 2011 BCS National Championship. The Tide ranked 16th in scoring offense, 30th in total offense and 17th in rushing offense in 2011.

Prior to Alabama, Napier spent seven of the previous eight years in two different stints at Clemson. During Napier's final two seasons at Clemson he earned an elevated position as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At the age of 29, he became the youngest coordinator in Clemson history. In his first season as Clemson's coordinator, the 2009 Tigers scored a school-record 436 points and scored 54 touchdowns (third-most in school history), averaged 5.73 yards per play (fourth best) and finished as the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Quarterback Kyle Parker was named a Freshman All-American and nine players Napier coached from 2009-10 went on to careers in the NFL.

Napier split his time from 2006-08 as Clemson's recruiting coordinator. In those three seasons, he compiled two top 25 recruiting classes, according to Rivals.com, and in 2008, his class was tabbed as the second-best in the nation by ESPN.com. Known to his peers as a top recruiter, Napier has signed several players who went on to the NFL, including Kavell Conner, Crezdon Butler, Brandon Thompson and Marcus Gilchrist. Fourteen players from Clemson's 2011 two-deep roster were signed by Napier, including five who earned all-ACC honors.

Napier was the 2007-08 tight ends coach at Clemson, helping lead the Tigers to two bowl games and a prolific offense. The 2007 season featured a 9-4 record and the ACC's highest-scoring offense. In his first year back with Clemson (2006), Napier worked primarily with the Tigers' tight ends but also was responsible for the punt team and assisted in several special-teams capacities. The 2006 Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring offense, advancing to the Music City Bowl. Clemson averaged 410.9 yards per game and 32.7 points, more than doubling its opponents totals. Tight end Hunter Thomas started all 11 games for the Tigers, averaging 19.1 yards per reception, and Michael Palmer, who Napier coached for three seasons, went on to the NFL, while working with the special teams, he helped to develop one of the most talented players in Clemson history, C.J. Spiller.

In 2005, Napier spent one season as the quarterbacks coach at South Carolina State. The Bulldogs finished the year 9-2 and ranked among the nation's best in several offensive categories, including: rushing (12th), passing efficiency (15th) and scoring offense (17th). S.C. State also had the country's fourth-best turnover margin, committing only 11 turnovers, roughly one-third of the total from the previous season (32). Napier developed Cleve McCoy and molded him into the MEAC Player of the Year. He also recruited offensive tackle Johnny Culbreath, who became a unanimous All-America selection and was drafted by the Detroit Lions. Napier was offered the position of offensive coordinator after the 2005 season, but declined, instead taking over as the tight ends coach at Clemson.

Napier began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2003-04. In 2003, he worked with video coordinating. The Tigers won nine games, including the Peach Bowl against Tennessee. The following season, Napier was the on-field graduate assistant on defense, and gained his first experience with recruiting off the field.

As a player, Napier was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as the starting quarterback at Furman. The Paladins won two conference championships and in 2001, Napier's junior year, advanced to the Division I-AA national championship game, losing to Montana. He completed 64.8 percent of his career passes, setting a school record. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier amassed 2,475 passing yards, also a Furman record, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding FCS offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Ga., and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn and couple has a daughter Annie. He earned his bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

Doug Nussmeier begins his second season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Alabama after joining the Crimson Tide in February 2012 after three seasons at the University of Washington.

In Nussmeier's first year at the helm of the Alabama offense, the 2012 Crimson Tide produced one of the most proficient offensive seasons in school history. UA set records for rushing/passing touchdowns scored (68), total points (542), total offense (6,237) and passing touchdowns (31). His tutelage of quarterback AJ McCarron resulted in one of the best seasons by a quarterback in school history. McCarron set a record for single-season touchdowns (30) while throwing for 2,933 yards (second in school history), completing 67.2 percent of his passes and throwing just three interceptions. He also led the nation in passing efficiency (175.28). Nussmeier built a balanced and explosive offense. The Tide rushed for 3,185 yards while throwing for 3,052, becoming the first Alabama team to rush and pass for 3,000 yards in a single season while accounting for 134 plays of 15-yards or more (76 passing and 58 rushing).

Despite replacing a first-round pick at quarterback, Nussmeier's 2011 offense at Washington had a very successful campaign in 2011 and the unit improved statistically in each of his three seasons. Washington's offense scored 57 touchdowns and 434 points in 2011, the second-highest totals in school history (behind only the 1991 national championship team). The 2011 season marks for passing yards (3,322) and total offense (5,328) also were second in the UW record book. Nussmeier helped guide sophomore quarterback Keith Price to one of the top individual seasons at Washington. As the first-year starter, Price broke records for passing touchdowns (33), completion percentage (.669) and passing efficiency (161.9). That efficiency rating was seventh nationally and second in the Pac-12 behind only Andrew Luck of Stanford. The Huskies scored 30 or more points in nine of 13 games and also featured an outstanding ground game led by Chris Polk, who ranked 16th nationally with an average of 114.5 rushing yards per game.

In 2010, Nussmeier oversaw a balanced Huskies attack that finished with 2,238 rushing yards and 2,475 passing yards. The offense was led by Polk, whose 1,415 rushing yards were second-most in UW single-season history. Nussmeier also mentored quarterback Jake Locker, who finished his career ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in nearly every major quarterbacking category. Locker was the No. 8 overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft the by Tennessee Titans.

In his first season at Washington, Nussmeier's offense made tremendous strides over the previous season. The Huskies scored 26.1 points per game, nearly doubling their average from the previous year while total offense was up more than 110 yards per game over the 2008 average. Nussmeier also spent his first season coaching Locker, who had one of the most productive seasons in Huskies history. Locker passed for 2,800 yards, the third-highest total in school history, while the offense boasted a 1,000-yard rusher in Polk.

Nussmeier came to the UW after one season as the offensive coordinator at Fresno State. He joined the Fresno State staff after spending two seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the St. Louis Rams on the staff of head coach Scott Linehan. Nussmeier coached Marc Bulger, who was named to his second Pro Bowl in 2006, finishing with 4,301 passing yards, 24 touchdowns and only eight picks.

Before his time with the Rams, Nussmeier was the quarterbacks coach at Michigan State for three seasons. In 2005, MSU quarterback Drew Stanton passed for a school-record 3,415 yards, breaking a record set by another Nussmeier pupil, Jeff Smoker, who threw for 3,395 yards in 2003. Smoker also set MSU records for completions (302) and passing touchdowns (21).

Nussmeier, who played in both the NFL and the Canadian Football League, began his coaching career in the CFL. In 2001, he was the quarterbacks coach for the British Columbia Lions and then served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Ottawa Renegades in 2002.

During his outstanding collegiate career at Idaho, Nussmeier passed for 10,824 yards and averaged 309.1 yards per game in total offense for his career. Along with Steve McNair, Daunte Culpepper and Colin Kaepernick, he is one of only four quarterbacks in NCAA history to total 10,000 yards passing and 1,000 yards rushing during his career. Nussmeier set Idaho school records for touchdown passes (91), passing efficiency (154.4), completion percentage (.609) and total offense (12,054 yards). In 1993, he won the Walter Payton Award, Division I-AA's version of the Heisman Trophy. That year, Nussmeier led Idaho to an 11-3 record and set a school record with 33 touchdown passes. He also was the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year in 1992, when the Vandals went 9-3 and won the conference crown. Nussmeier was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

In 1994, Nussmeier was drafted in the fourth round by the New Orleans Saints. He played four years (1994-97) with the Saints and one with the Indianapolis Colts (1998). In 2000, he helped the BC Lions win the Grey Cup Championship.

The Oswego, Ore., native attended Lakeridge High School and earned his bachelor's degree in business and marketing from Idaho in 1994. He and his wife Christi have two sons Garrett and Colton and a daughter Ashlynn.

Chris Rumph is in his third season on the defensive coaching staff for the Alabama Crimson Tide. Rumph, a four-year letterman during his playing days at South Carolina, joined Alabama's staff in January of 2011 after five years as the defensive ends coach at Clemson.

Rumph's 2012 deep and talented group of defensive linemen was a key element in Alabama's defensive efforts. The Crimson Tide led the nation in rush defense, allowing only 76.4 yards per game while also leading the country in total defense at 250.0 yards per game.

Senior defensive end Damion Square, senior nose guard Jesse Williams and junior end Ed Stinson anchored the group. Square finished with 33 tackles, four tackles for loss, 3.5 sacks and a team-high nine quarterback hurries. Williams added 37 stops with 2.5 tackles for loss and four hurries, while Stinson registered three sacks, 8.5 tackles for loss and 30 total stops.

Rumph was integral in the development of Williams from a raw junior-college lineman from Australia to and SEC starter and eventual NFL Draft pick by the Seattle Seahawks.

The defensive line was stellar in 2011, helping the Crimson Tide rank No. 1 nationally in rushing defense and allowing only 72.2 yards per game.

Josh Chapman anchored the 2011 line from his nose guard position, earning second team All-SEC honors, despite playing the second half of the season with a torn ACL. In 2011, Chapman collected 23 total tackles, including 3.5 for loss, one sack and a pair of pass breakups. Alabama led the nation in all five major defensive categories as the Tide captured the 2011 national championship. Chapman then was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 NFL Draft, by the Indianapolis Colts.

In Rumph's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers ranked among the top 25 nationally in scoring defense and total defense in each of those five seasons. The 2010 defense was 19th in total defense (320.3 ypg) and 13th in scoring defense (18.8 ppg). Clemson appeared in bowl games to conclude each of those five seasons and won the ACC Atlantic Division title in 2009. Rumph coached 2010 All-American Da'Quan Bowers, who led the nation in sacks (15.5) and was tied for first in the NCAA in tackles for loss (26.0). He also coached defensive end Phillip Merling, who was the No. 32 overall pick by the Miami Dolphins in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Prior to his stint at Clemson, Rumph was the outside linebackers coach at Memphis for three years (2003-05). Memphis appeared in bowl games in each of his three seasons and won a total of 24 games during that time. Memphis beat Mississippi in 2003 and 2004 and the Tigers were ninth in the nation in total defense in 2003. In 2005, the Memphis defense finished 23rd in the nation in turnover margin and led the conference in rush defense (125.6 ypg), which was good for 27th in the NCAA.

Rumph was the defensive backs coach at South Carolina State in 2002, following a five-year stint as head coach at Calhoun County (S.C.) High School. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/running backs coach at Calhoun County.

Rumph was born Dec. 21, 1971, in Orangeburg, S.C., and played high school football at Calhoun County High School in St. Matthews, S.C. Rumph signed with South Carolina and played linebacker from 1991-94, earning his B.S. degree in 1994. He helped the Gamecocks record their first bowl victory in the 1995 Carquest Bowl. He and his wife Kila are the proud parents of two sons, Christopher and Elijah.

Kirby Smart, the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant coach, is in his seventh season with the Alabama football staff and sixth as defensive coordinator. A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart is one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense (250.0 ypg), scoring defense (10.9 ppg) and rush defense (76.4 ypg) while ranking seventh in pass defense (174.3 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (103.72). The Alabama defense featured two first team All-Americans in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker C.J. Mosley. Milliner was a finalist for the Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's top defensive back, after making 54 tackles, with a nation-leading 20 pass deflections, two interceptions and four tackles for loss. Mosley was a finalist for the Butkus Award and led the team with 107 tackles while making seven tackles for loss, four sacks and intercepting two passes. The 107 tackles for Mosley are the second most in the last 25 years by an Alabama defender (Demeco Ryans had 126 in 2003).

The 2011 defense led the nation in all five major categories including total defense (183.6 ypg), scoring defense (8.2 ppg), rushing defense (72.2 ypg), passing defense (111.5 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69 rating). Dont'a Hightower (a finalist for the Lombardi Award, Lott Trophy, Butkus Award and Bednarik Award) led the team in total tackles with 85. The first team all-SEC selection also recorded 11 tackles for loss, four sacks, eight quarterback hurries, one interception and a blocked kick. Hightower became the latest in a line of first-round linebackers produced at Alabama, selected by the New England Patriots with the 25th pick of the first round in 2012.

Smart's rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive, as the Tide remained one of the nation's elite defensive units while replacing nearly the entire defense (nine starters). Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense (13.5 ppg) and fifth nationally in total defense (286.4 ypg). The Tide also ranked first in the SEC (sixth in the NCAA) in pass efficiency defense. Safety Mark Barron and defensive lineman Marcell Dareus earned first team all-SEC honors while Hightower, safety Robert Lester and cornerback Dre Kirkpatrick were second team all-SEC selections.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart, as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The Alabama defense again was regarded as one of the top units in the country, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense (11.7 ppg), pass efficiency defense (87.7), rush defense (78.1 ypg) and total defense (244.1 ypg).

In the 2010 BCS National Championship game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart's defense earned first-team All-America honors – linebacker Rolando McClain, cornerback Javier Arenas and nose guard Terrence Cody – while Barron was a third team Associated Press All-American. McClain captured the Butkus Award and Cody was a finalist for several national awards.

The 2008 Alabama defense was rated among the nation's best. The Tide finished third in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg). Senior captain Rashad Johnson earned first team All-America honors at safety as well as first team all-SEC recognition after intercepting five passes, including two that were returned for touchdowns. Alabama snagged 15 interceptions in 2008 and brought back four of those for scores.

Under Smart's guidance in 2007, Johnson led the SEC with six interceptions and earned first team all-SEC honors along with cornerback Simeon Castille. A third member of the Alabama secondary, cornerback Kareem Jackson, was honored at the end of the season as a second team Sporting News Freshman All-American.

Smart joined the Tide after spending the 2006 season as safeties coach with head coach Nick Saban and the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Prior to his stint with the Dolphins, Smart spent six years on the collegiate level with Georgia (1999 and 2005), LSU (2004), Florida State (2002-03), and Valdosta State (2000-01).

As the running backs coach at Georgia in 2005, Smart's Bulldogs unit averaged 162.2 yards per game, third in the SEC. Smart spent the 2004 season as defensive backs coach under Saban at LSU, where he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami Dolphins). That season, LSU allowed 157.2 passing yards per game to rank second in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Smart was a graduate assistant coach under Bobby Bowden and Mickey Andrews at Florida State in 2002-03, having served as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs (2000) coach at Valdosta State the previous two seasons. He began his coaching career as an administrative assistant at Georgia in 1999.

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a first team all-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, fourth in Georgia annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart earned his undergraduate degree in finance from Georgia and his master's degree from Florida State in 2003.

A native of Bainbridge, Ga., Smart is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga. The couple are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia and son Andrew.

Lance Thompson is in his third stint at Alabama after returning to the Crimson Tide in January of 2012. He coaches the outside linebackers for the Tide (as he did in 2007 and 2008). Thompson returned to the Alabama staff after spending three seasons at Tennessee.

Alabama's defense had to replace several veterans in 2012, including both starting outside linebackers (Courtney Upshaw and Jerrell Harris) along with key reserve Alex Watkins. Sophomores Xzavier Dickson and Adrian Hubbard stepped into starting roles and performed well, while true freshman Denzel Devall also earned playing time. Hubbard led the outside linebackers with 41 tackles, a team-high 11 tackles for loss (54 yards), seven sacks (44 yards), four quarterback hurries and three forced fumbles. Dickson added 33 tackles with five tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

Thompson spent three years at Tennessee (2009-11) working with the linebackers the first two seasons and the defensive line in 2011. As linebackers coach, he guided Nick Reveiz to a team-high 108 tackles in 2010. Reveiz also was a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, presented to a former walk-on having the biggest impact on his team.

Alabama put together a 12-2 record in Thompson's second season, of his second stint in Tuscaloosa, winning the 2008 SEC West title and earning a BCS bowl bid. UA ranked third nationally in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg) in 2008.
Thompson was named the Rivals.com National Recruiter of the Year for his work in helping land what was widely regarded as the nation's top signing class in 2008.

Previously, Thompson was a member of national championship staffs at Georgia Tech and LSU. He has been a member of two SEC championship coaching staffs, two ACC championship staffs and one Conference USA divisional winner.

Thompson served as the defensive coordinator at Central Florida for three seasons (2004-06). In 2005, his unit produced a pair of All-Conference USA first team selections in defensive end Paul Carrington and cornerback Joe Burnett. The Golden Knights also were the 2005 Conference USA Eastern Division champions. Thompson helped develop one of the nation's youngest defenses at UCF in 2004, and the group came together to hold the opposition to 21 points or fewer in three of the final four games of the season.

In his first stint with Saban, Thompson spent two seasons at LSU as the assistant head coach in charge of recruiting and the tight ends coach for the Tigers during their 2003 national championship season. Thompson began his tenure at LSU in 2002 as the defensive line coach. In his first year with the Tigers, he coached defensive tackle Chad Lavalais to first team All-SEC honors while the Tigers front four racked up 22 sacks.

Thompson also coached four seasons on head coach George O'Leary's staff at Georgia Tech. In 2001, he coached a defensive line that recorded 21 sacks, including 10 by All-America defensive end Greg Gathers.

In Thompson's first stint at Alabama, he served as the defensive line coach from 1999-2000. The Crimson Tide won the 1999 SEC championship and earned a BCS bowl berth (2000 Orange Bowl). Players Thompson coached at Alabama during that two-year period included all-SEC defensive lineman Jarret Johnson, now regarded as one of the most consistent performers in the NFL as a starter with the Baltimore Ravens.

Prior to his initial seasons at Alabama, Thompson was a part of the Georgia Tech staff for 11 years. During his stay with the Yellow Jackets, Thompson was defensive line coach in 1998, defensive ends coach in 1996 and 1997, and tight ends coach in 1995. He served as Georgia Tech's recruiting coordinator from 1995-98 and then again in 2001. Prior to serving as an on-field coach for the Yellow Jackets, Thompson held the position of director of football operations at Georgia Tech from 1992-94.

Thompson started in coaching in 1988, serving as a graduate assistant for two years at Georgia Tech, followed by two more years as a volunteer assistant in 1990 and 1991. He coached the defensive ends, including All-America and All-Pro Marco Coleman. Georgia Tech earned a share of the national championship in 1990.

As a player, Thompson was a four-year letterman at The Citadel, where he earned his bachelor's degree in education and mathematics in 1987. A native of Riverdale, Ga., Thompson has three daughters: Allie, Christina and Lane.

Bobby Williams is in his sixth season in Tuscaloosa as Alabama's tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. A veteran coach with both college and NFL experience, Williams is a member of head coach Nick Saban's coaching staff for the fourth time in his career, also working together at Michigan State, LSU and the Miami Dolphins.

Williams was a nominee for the 2012 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the national assistant coach of the year. Alabama's tight ends combination of three-year starter Michael Williams and walk-on senior Kelly Johnson performed well with 29 receptions for 222 yards and four scores. Jeremy Shelley was the only kicker in the nation to not miss a kick, going 69-for-69 on extra points and hitting all 11 of his field goals. Punter Cody Mandell turned in a career season with a 44.3 yards per kick average with 19 punts inside the 20-yard line and 14 punts of more than 50 yards.

In 2011, Williams' tight end duo of Brad Smelley and Williams combined for 50 receptions resulting in 547 yards. Smelley recorded a team-best four receiving touchdowns, while Williams tacked on another two scores. On special teams, Marquis Maze ranked ninth in the nation and third in the Southeastern Conference, averaging 13.2 yards per punt return with one touchdown. Those numbers earned Maze a spot on the all-SEC second team as a specialist. Alabama ranked 19th in the nation in kickoff returns (24.1 ypg). The Tide allowed only 11 punts to be returned in 2011, for a total of 51 yards.

Williams was instrumental in the development of Preston Dial in 2010, as the senior had a breakout season under his tutelage. On top of his exceptional blocking abilities, Dial hauled in a career-best 25 passes for 264 yards and three scores. Williams also had an outstanding 2010 season as a dominating blocker on the edge in the Alabama running game, while catching eight passes for 100 yards and a touchdown.

The veteran coach had to replace both kickers in 2010, with the losses of Leigh Tiffin and P.J. Fitzgerald. Mandell won the punting duties as a true freshman and averaged 39.2 yards per kick, knocking 13 inside the 20. Fellow freshman Cade Foster split field goal duties with sophomore Shelley. Foster drilled seven field goals, including five over 40 yards, while Shelley handled the closer attempts. Trent Richardson ranked 29th nationally in kickoff returns and Maze was 16th in punt returns.

During the 2009 national championship season, Williams had to replace a pair of senior tight ends from the 2008 roster. The Alabama offense did not miss a beat, as Colin Peek emerged as one of the team's top targets, earning second team Associated Press all-SEC honors with 26 catches for 313 yards and three touchdowns.

Williams also oversaw 2009 Lou Groza finalist Leigh Tiffin at place-kicker. Tiffin earned first team AP All-America status. Javier Arenas set the SEC career records for punt return yards and touchdowns. Punter P.J. Fitzgerald had a career season for the Tide in 2009 by averaging 41.5 yards per kick, with 19 inside the 20-yard line.

The special teams in 2008 were a big weapon for the Tide under Williams. Arenas broke two punt returns for touchdowns, Tiffin was a Groza Award semifinalist and connected on 20-of-29 on field goals, while Fitzgerald had a then-career-best average of 41.1 yards per punt with 15 inside the 20. Tight ends Nick Walker and Travis McCall combined for 23 starts, the best seasons of their career in terms of production.

Williams spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons as the running backs coach with the Dolphins. In his first season, Miami averaged 118.6 yards rushing per game, the second-best figure by the team from 1985-2005.

In 2004, Williams served as the associate head coach/wide receivers coach at LSU, where he coached a pair of future NFL first-round picks in Craig Davis and Dwayne Bowe. Davis and Bowe ranked in the top 10 in the SEC for both receptions per game and receiving yards per game in 2004. Prior to LSU, Williams had a one-year stint with the Detroit Lions as wide receivers coach in 2003.

Williams followed Saban as the head coach at Michigan State and served in that post from 2000-02. He led the Spartans to a victory over Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl after the 1999 season, in his first game as the school's head coach. He also guided Michigan State to a 7-5 mark in 2001, his second full season as head coach. That season culminated with a victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, as he became the first coach in Michigan State history to lead his team to victories in his first two bowl appearances.

Previously an assistant on the Spartans staff from 1990-99, Williams tutored the running backs under Saban. MSU backs produced nine individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Williams' 10 years in that post, led by T.J. Duckett, Atlanta's first-round draft choice in 2002.

Williams earned his start in coaching as running backs/defensive backs coach at Ball State from 1983-84. He followed that with a five-year stint (1985-89) as offensive backfield coach at Eastern Michigan.

A 1982 graduate of Purdue, where he earned his degree in general management and was a four-year letterman for the Boilermakers. Williams started his career at running back before moving to the secondary and starting in his final three seasons. A tri-captain as a senior in 1981, Williams was a part of three bowl teams as a player. He then served one year (1982) as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. A native of St. Louis, Williams and his wife Sheila have a daughter Nataly and a son Nicholas, a former wide receiver for the Crimson Tide.

The booming voice you hear leading a pre-practice stretch or encouraging a Crimson Tide player to finish a workout session strong is that of Director of Strength and Conditioning Scott Cochran. The high-energy coach, who is a two-time national strength coach of the year, joined the Alabama staff in 2007 after spending three seasons with the New Orleans Hornets of the NBA as an assistant strength coach. Cochran has been on Nick Saban's staff for all four national titles, as he served as an assistant at LSU in 2003.

Cochran is nationally regarded as one of the best in the area of strength and conditioning – and the performances of Alabama's players on the field prove that to be true. He received one of the highest honors in his field when he was named the 2011 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year, as featured in American Football Quarterly. He earlier was named the Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Prior to the start of spring drills, Cochran implements Coach Saban's offseason workout plan, which includes the well-known "Fourth Quarter Program" – a very important step in helping Alabama players develop physically and prepare for the upcoming practices.

It is no coincidence that through improvements off the field in strength and conditioning, Alabama is known as one of the most physically dominant teams in the country. The main goal of the program is to win the fourth quarter and wear down the opponent as the game goes on. On the way to the 2009 national championship, Alabama did just that as they won the fourth quarter by an astounding scoring margin of 121-32. The Tide continued the trend of finishing in 2011, as it again dominated the fourth quarter en route to the program's second national championship in three years with a 111-18 fourth-quarter scoring margin.

Cochran oversees Alabama's new 37,000-square-foot weight room that is one of the largest venues of its kind in the country. The new $9-million facility features 21,000-square feet on the first level and 16,000-square feet on the second level. The ground level comprises a weight room, highlighted by 20 combination racks that feature platforms built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. The weight rooms also has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes, plus physicians offices and strength and conditioning offices.

While in the NBA with the Hornets from 2004-06, Cochran's duties included assisting with the exercise and strength conditioning programs to help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the NBA season. With the Hornets, he worked with NBA standouts Chris Paul, Baron Davis, David West and Tyson Chandler.

Prior to joining the Hornets staff, Cochran worked for his alma mater Louisiana State as an assistant strength coach in 2003 (13-1, BCS national champions) and 2004 (9-3, Capital One Bowl). He was a graduate assistant in Baton Rouge from 2001-03. Cochran returned to LSU after starting his career in the strength and conditioning field at University Laboratory High School in Baton Rouge, La. He held that position from 1998-2001 before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant for all sports from 2001-03. Cochran then was hired on to the full-time staff for the 2003-04 season.

A native of New Orleans, Cochran received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2001 and added a master's degree in sports management from LSU in 2003. Cochran was born on March 21, 1979, and is married to the former Cissy Schepens. They have three children, including on son Beau and two daughters Savannah and Lucy.

Joe Pannunzio is in his third year on the Crimson Tide coaching staff serving as director of football operations.

Pannunzio has three decades of college football experience. Prior to joining the Crimson Tide, he spent five years at the University of Miami (2006-10) and was the head coach at Murray State the previous six seasons (2000-05). His primary role at Alabama is to oversee the administration and operation of the football program.

Pannunzio served as the tight ends/special teams coordinator at Miami from 2006-10. The Hurricanes made four bowl appearances during his five years in Coral Gables, including trips to the 2006 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2008 Emerald Bowl, the 2009 Champs Sports Bowl and the 2010 Sun Bowl.

During his tenure at Miami, Pannunzio coached the likes of Greg Olsen, a first-round NFL Draft pick of the Chicago Bears. He also tutored Jimmy Graham, a third-round pick of the New Orleans Saints, and Dedrick Epps, who was selected in the seventh round by the San Diego Chargers.

While the head coach at Murray State from 2000-05, Pannunzio led the Racers to the 2002 Ohio Valley championship, joining Mike Gottfried, Frank Beamer and Houston Nutt as one of the four coaches to win a conference title at the school. Pannunzio also led Murray State to the 2002 NCAA Championship Subdivision playoffs.

Prior to becoming a head coach for the Racers, Pannunzio spent five years working for Tommy Tuberville at Mississippi and Auburn. Before that, he served four years under Jim Wacker at TCU and Minnesota.

Pannunzio coached for seven years at Mesa (Colo.) College, where the team appeared in the NAIA National Championship Game twice and led the nation in total offense and scoring once. His two stints at Mesa wrapped around two years at Kansas, where he worked under Gottfried.

The Pueblo, Colo., native was a standout quarterback at Southern Colorado, where he graduated with a degree in physical education in 1982. He was named honorable mention all-conference in 1980 and led his team to a No. 9 ranking in NAIA Division I.

Pannunzio and his wife Rita have two daughters, Angela and Nico, and a son Mario.

Kevin Steele returned to Alabama as the Crimson Tide's director of player personnel in February of 2013. Steele, who spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons on head coach Nick Saban's defensive staff at Alabama, is back at the Capstone following three years as Clemson's defensive coordinator (2009-11).

At Alabama, Steele's main charge is to direct the recruiting efforts for the Crimson Tide. He also will assist with camps, clinics and other football-related events. His responsibilities will include assisting with the administration and operation of the football program.

Steele directed Clemson's defense from 2009-2011 and helped the Tigers win the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. His 2010 defense led the ACC and ranked 13th nationally in points allowed, surrendering only 18.8 points per game.

During a two-year stint as the Crimson Tide's defensive coordinator from 2007-08, Steele and Saban turned Alabama's defense into one of the best in the nation. The 2008 defensive unit ranked second nationally in rushing defense, allowing only 74.1 yards per game while tying for third in total defense (263.5 ypg) and ranking seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg).

Steele worked at Florida State under head coach Bobby Bowden for four seasons (2003-06). He was named executive head coach for the Seminoles in 2005, as Steele earned a reputation as an outstanding recruiter. He was named the Rivals.com National Recruiter of the Year after landing the nation's No. 1-ranked recruiting class at FSU in 2005. Steele's pupils include Michael Boulware, a finalist for the 2004 NFL Rookie of Year Award with the Seattle Seahawks, Ernie Sims, the ninth overall pick by the Detroit Lions in the 2006 NFL Draft, and Lawrence Timmons, a first-round pick of the Steelers in 2007.

Steele was the head coach at Baylor from 1999-2002 before moving to Florida State. He coached the linebackers for the NFL's Carolina Panthers from 1995-98 before taking the head coaching job at Baylor. He earlier had assistant coaching stints at Nebraska (1989-94), Tennessee (1987-88), Oklahoma State (1984-86) and New Mexico State (1983).

As a player, Steele spent his freshman year at Furman before transferring to Tennessee, where he was a member of Johnny Majors' 1978 and 1979 squads. He stayed on as a student assistant coach in 1980 and then as a graduate assistant in 1981. Steele was promoted to outside linebackers coach in 1982 and then moved to New Mexico State, where he served as recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach in 1983. From 1984-86, he coached linebackers and tight ends at Oklahoma State. He returned to his alma mater in 1987 and spent two years as the defensive backs coach for the Volunteers.

From 1989-94, Steele coached the linebackers under Nebraska legend Tom Osborne. During his six years in Lincoln, the Cornhuskers went 60-11, appeared in six bowl games, won four conference championships and captured the 1994 national championship with a 13-0 record. In 1995, Steele made the jump to the NFL as the linebackers coach at Carolina. Under head coach Dom Capers, the Panthers reached the NFC Championship game in their second season (1996). After four years with Carolina, Steele was hired as head coach at Baylor in 1999.

The Dillon, S.C., native is a 1981 graduate of the University of Tennessee. Steele and his wife Linda have one son Gordon and one daughter Caroline.

JEFF ALLEN

ASSISTANT AD FOR SPORTS MEDICINE

Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine Jeff Allen is in his seventh season at the University of Alabama. Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. At UCF, Allen was responsible for all of the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

One of the most well-respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen has authored several published articles and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. He had work published by T*he Journal of Athletic Training* and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Tennessee-Chattanooga from 2000-04, overseeing the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and earlier served as an assistant athletic trainer from 1995-97 at Valdosta (Ga.) State, where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams. He earned his master's degree in health and physical education from Valdosta State University in 1995, while also serving as a graduate assistant for two years.

A 1993 graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, Allen and his wife Mary have one daughter, Makennah.

JEFF SPRINGER

ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

The all-important role of athletic equipment director is coordinated by Jeff Springer, entering his third season with the Crimson Tide. Springer joined the Alabama staff after serving four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C., from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country, and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern in his home state at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

WILLIE CARL MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Willie Carl Martin joined the Alabama football staff as director of player development (academics) in 2007, after serving as head football coach at Benjamin Russell High School in Alexander City from 2001-07. Martin's role at Alabama is to help in the personal development of each student-athlete and see to it that they reach their full potential from an academic and personal standpoint.

Martin compiled a 52-24 record in six seasons as head coach at Benjamin Russell. Previously an assistant coach for the school, where he coached future NFL receiver Terrell Owens, Martin served 24 years in the Alexander City School System as a coach, teacher and administrator. A native of Alexander City, Martin joined the school system there in 1983 as a teacher and coach for Alexander Middle School. In 1985, he moved on to Benjamin Russell High School in a similar capacity and was elevated to head football coach in 2001. He led the Wildcats to the state championship in 2001 and was an assistant during the 1997 and 2000 seasons when they finished as runner-up. Martin served four years on the Central Board of Control for the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA).

A 1975 graduate of Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Okla., Martin was inducted into the NSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007. He was a four-year letterman (1969-72) in football for NSU as an offensive lineman and earned All-America and first team All-Oklahoma Collegiate Conference honors as a senior in 1972. After graduation, the Houston Oilers of the National Football League (NFL) drafted Martin. However, he chose to compete in the Canadian Football League (CFL), where his 10-year career featured stops in Edmonton and Winnipeg. Martin was named All-Pro in eight of his 10 seasons in the CFL, participated in six Grey Cup games and won two championships.

Martin and his wife Leslie Ruth have two daughters, Carla and Kizzy, and a grandson Malik.

KERRY STEVENSON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kerry Stevenson joined Nick Saban's staff at Alabama in February of 2013 as the Crimson Tide's director of player development. Stevenson came to the Capstone after spending 10 years (2003-12) as the head football coach at Vigor High School in Prichard, Ala.

In the director of player development role, Stevenson's main focus is off-the-field activities of Alabama's football student-athletes, and he serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics and community outreach. He also assists with personal development programs, including the peer intervention group.

At Vigor, Stevenson won the state championship with a perfect 15-0 record in 2008. His 2011 team finished as the state runner-up with a 12-3 record. He coached former Alabama player B.J. Scott at Vigor as well as current Alabama running back Jalston Fowler. Before being named the head coach, Stevenson was an assistant coach for a year at Vigor in 2002. He spent seven years (1995-2001) as an assistant coach at Huffman High School and two years (1993-94) at Mariner High School in Fort Myers, Fla.

Stevenson attended Alabama A&M on an academic scholarship, receiving both his undergraduate (1991) and graduate (1993) degrees. He played high school football at Huffman and the team advanced to the state championship game in his senior year.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Stevenson and his wife Tracy have a daughter Aisha and a son Jaylon.

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. JUDY L. BONNER

Dr. Judith L. Bonner was named the 28th President of The University of Alabama on Nov. 1, 2012. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bonner served as interim president from March 5 until August 31, 2012. She was promoted to executive vice president and provost on April 1, 2006, after serving as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs since March 2003.

During the decade Dr. Bonner served as provost, the University underwent transformational change growing from just over 19,000 students in 2003 to more than 33,600 students in 2012. Each year, the academic strength of the student body and the faculty exceeded the record set the previous year.

In addition, the University of Alabama athletics programs have excelled in recent years with four teams winning national championships in 2012 and two more in 2013. Former Athletics Director Mal Moore lauded Dr. Bonner's commitment to athletics as well as academics: "Dr. Bonner has long been a supporter of Alabama Athletics, and I am excited about her leadership of our great University.

"We have a unique unity on our campus, a special bond between our athletics program and the University at-large. Dr. Bonner's leadership will only serve to enhance that relationship and the unity that has been such a vital part of our athletics and academic success over these many years," Moore said.

Dr. Bonner joined the faculty at The University of Alabama in 1981 as associate professor and head of the department of human nutrition and hospitality. She served as assistant academic vice president from 1985-1990 and as special assistant to the president from 1989-1991. Promoted to professor in 1988, she was named dean of the College of Human Environmental Sciences in 1989 and held that position until 2003.

Prior to coming to Alabama, Dr. Bonner held faculty appointments in the department of pediatrics at UAB and the department of medical dietetics at The Ohio State University.

Dr. Bonner earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from The University of Alabama and her Ph.D. from The Ohio State University, all in nutrition. Her research focused on nutritional needs of chronically ill children and on eating disorders, and has resulted in numerous publications.

Dr. Bonner is an active member of civic, scientific and professional organizations. Among other awards and honors, her accolades include the Distinguished Alumni Award from The Ohio State University, the AHEA Leader Award and the award for Outstanding Dietitian for the state of Alabama.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

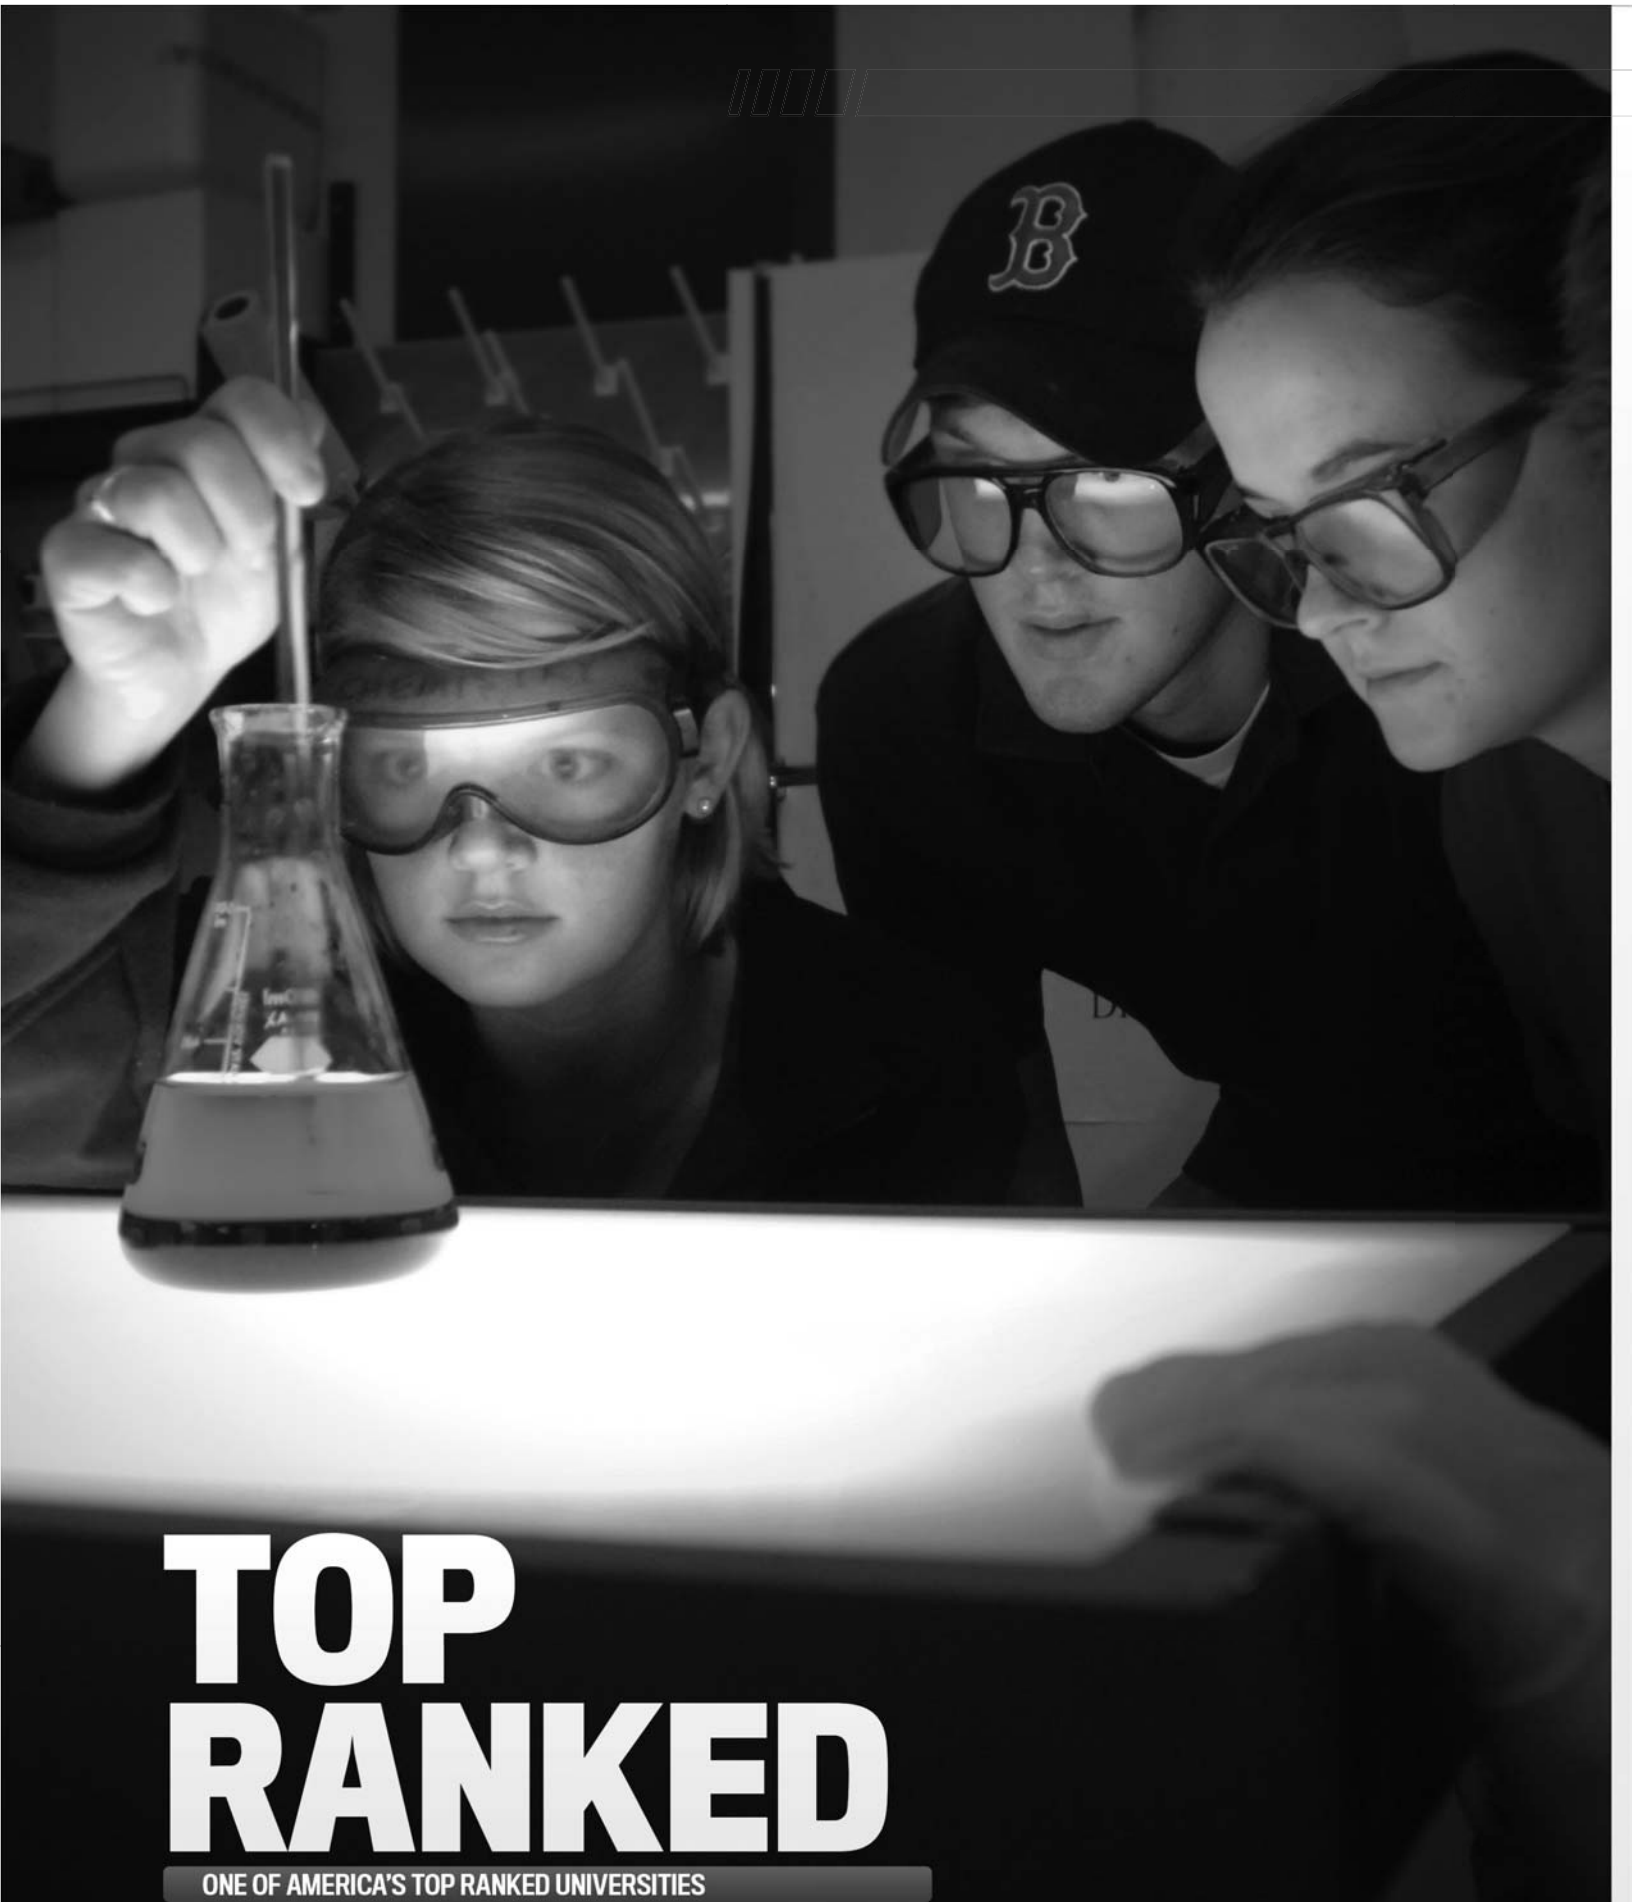
From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center was completed in 1973. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built slightly to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the first floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape from the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The newly expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities for students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area, which opened in the summer of 2003, features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and plenty of deck space.



TOP RANKED

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP RANKED UNIVERSITIES

• The University of Alabama ranked first among public universities nationwide in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars for 2012-2013 with 241 scholars in the fall 2012 freshman class. The ranking also places Alabama fourth among all universities. Only the University of Chicago, Harvard and the University of Southern California enrolled more National Merit Scholars in the fall of 2012.

• Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 32nd among public universities in the 2013 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

• The School of Law is ranked 21st among all law schools in the nation, spring 2013.

• The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 18th nationally, spring 2013

• The MBA program is ranked 58th among all MBA programs, spring 2013

• University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Three UA students were named Goldwater Scholars and one was named a Truman Scholar in 2012, bringing UA's totals for the past 25 years to 37 Goldwater Scholars and eight Truman Scholars. The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars and numerous Hollings Scholars.

• The UA Libraries rank 56th out of 115 U.S. and Canadian university libraries qualifying for membership in the prestigious Association of Research Libraries, and rank 32nd among public university libraries. Alabama has made dramatic improvement in the rankings, moving up from 102nd overall and 64th among public university libraries in the past 10 years.

• Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 33,602 for fall 2012. The entering freshman class, at 6,397 students, was the largest in UA history and included 1,725 students who had a 4.0 or higher high school grade point average.

• The Manderson Graduate School of Business is listed fourth among the "top 10 most popular business schools," based on the percent of accepted applicants who chose to attend the school in 2012.

• The undergraduate program at the Culverhouse School of Accountancy at Alabama is No. 20 in Public Accounting Report's latest annual professors survey. The University's graduate program in accounting was ranked 24.

• PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation each of the last four years.

• Participation in original research and creative activities is becoming a hallmark of the undergraduate experience at Alabama. More than 400 undergraduates now showcase their research and creative activity projects at Alabama's annual "Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Conference."

• Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

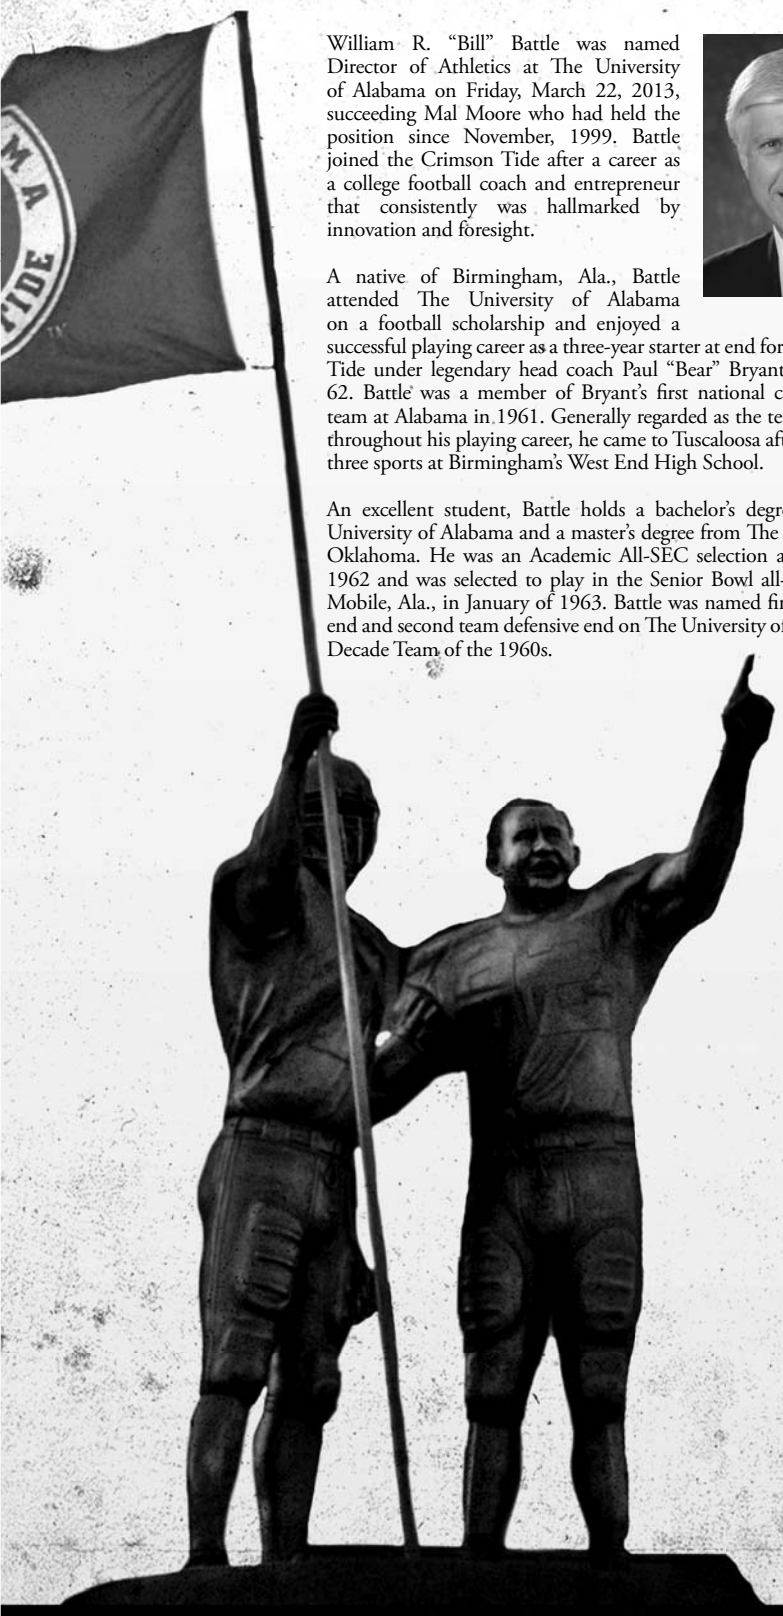
BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle was named Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama on Friday, March 22, 2013, succeeding Mal Moore who had held the position since November, 1999. Battle joined the Crimson Tide after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that consistently was hallmarked by innovation and foresight.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, he came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle holds a bachelor's degree from The University of Alabama and a master's degree from The University of Oklahoma. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. Battle was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All Decade Team of the 1960s.



Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as the Tennessee head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. The 1971 team finished ninth in both national polls while his 1972 Tennessee squad had a final ranking of eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches' poll.

Battle began a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and he served as president and chief executive officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member in the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He received the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame and later was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. Battle currently serves on the boards of the Bank of North Georgia, the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife Mary is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas School of Nursing, with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. She earned a Masters of Science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. Mary currently serves on the board of WellStar Health Systems of Atlanta, Ga., where she also serves on the WellStar's Foundation Board, in addition to serving as chairperson of WellStar's Major Gifts Committee. A member of the Arthritis Foundation of Birmingham, she is active in fundraising for research of rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles have been active in fundraising for UAB's Department of Rheumatology and the school's Stem Cell Institute. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

Drawing from our rich heritage and TRADITION OF CHAMPIONS, the University of Alabama Department of Athletics is committed to the highest standard of excellence in all its endeavors to DEVELOP FUTURE LEADERS.

TRADITION CHAMPIONS LEADERS

IN EMBRACING OUR CORE VALUES WE WILL:

Build and maintain an athletics program that annually ranks among the national elite in all sports; emphasize recruitment of the top student-athlete; construct and develop first-class facilities in which our student-athletes and coaches can train and compete at the highest level; promote community involvement of our student-athletes, coaches and staff as necessary for our program's success; and perpetuate our rich heritage and tradition through the spirited branding of our CRIMSON TIDE name.

Housed inside the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility is the 10,000 square-foot equipment facility. A state-of-the-art operation, the equipment area uses the latest in purifying plasma engineering (RCI) developed by NASA. The system removes the airborne germs and debris that are harmful to athletes and restores clean, breathable air to the room. The same system is installed in the locker rooms, as well as inside each locker, removing any lockerroom odors and allowing shoulder pads and other equipment proper ventilation.

HANK CRISP INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

3:30 PM — 5:30 PM

PRACTICE

The Alabama football team utilizes the Drew-Thomas Practice Fields along with the Hank Crisp Indoor Practice Facility – a total of five practice fields which gives the Crimson Tide one of the largest practice areas in the country. There are three outdoor grass practice fields, one outdoor turf field along with a 150-yard indoor facility (recently renovated in the summer of 2009).

ALABAMA FOOTBALL FACILITY UPGRADES FOR 2013

WEIGHT ROOM

Alabama's new state-of-the art 37,000-square-foot weight room is a showcase for the Crimson Tide's lauded training programs, such as the "Fourth Quarter Program." The weight room features 21,000-square feet on the lower level and 16,000-square feet on the second floor. The weight room is highlighted by 24 combination racks that have platforms built into the ground for a level surface, providing a safer workout environment, as well as a brand new dumbbell station. The upper level houses cardio stations, medicine balls, office space for team doctors and a rehabilitation center. The complex features a state-of-the-art nutrition bar, video monitor and sound system. The weight room seamlessly connects the Mal Moore Athletics Complex, where the football offices are located, to the Hank Crisp Indoor Practice Facility.

LOCKER ROOM/MEETING ROOMS

The latest renovations to the Mal Moore Athletic Complex feature a complete overhaul to Alabama's football locker room, meetings spaces as well as lounge and recruiting areas to give the Crimson Tide a premier player development hub. The transformation comprises a state-of-the art, redesigned locker room with new furnishings from top to bottom, including 137 custom-built lockers and a cascading built-in spa for post-practice recovery. The meeting rooms are built around a new theater-style team room that has 175 oversized seats and is equipped with a 300-inch projection screen. The renovations also feature eight new theater-style position meeting rooms. The player lounge area has an 80-inch high-definition television, an arcade room and three gaming areas along with pool and ping-pong tables.

THE RISE OF THE TIDE

A BRIEF LOOK AT THE ORIGINS OF COLLLEGE FOOTBALL'S GREATEST TRADITION

"To have a tradition like ours means that you can't lose your cool; to have a tradition like ours means that you always have to show class, even when you are not quite up to it; to have a tradition like ours means that you have to do some things that you don't want to do and some you even think you can't do, simply because tradition demands it of you. On the other hand, tradition is that which allows us to prevail in ways that we could not otherwise."

David Matthews
Former University of Alabama President

Alabama football boasts a rich tradition that dates back for more than a century. The winningest program in Southeastern Conference (SEC) annals, Alabama has won 23 SEC championships and 15 national championships in its storied history.

It all began with University of Alabama law student William G. Little, who learned how to play American football while attending prep school in Andover, Mass. Little began teaching the sport to fellow Alabama students in early 1892. Later in the year, the school formed an official team of 19 players, with Little as captain and E.B. Beaumont as the team's head coach. Those on the team included William B. Bankhead, future U.S. Speaker of the House, and Bibb Graves, future governor of Alabama. The team was referred to as the "Cadets," the "Crimson White," or simply as "The Varsity". Following the 1907 season, the team adopted the "Crimson Tide" nickname.

Shortly after the end of the 1922 season, in which he led Alabama in the victory over Penn, head coach Xen C. Scott passed away and Brown University alum Wallace Wade was hired as Alabama's new head coach. Intent on building a dynasty after Wade had led the team to its first national championship with a win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl, University President Dr. George Denny took advantage of the team's newfound popularity and began advertising the University of Alabama in metropolitan New York City newspapers. Students, football players and fans alike from the Northeast began enrolling at Alabama at such a rate that by 1930, over one-third of the student body was comprised of students from outside of Alabama. Wade led the Crimson Tide to two more national titles before taking the head coaching job at Duke in 1931.

Frank Thomas, a former quarterback for a Notre Dame squad led by Knute Rockne, was hired to replace Wade. Thomas led the team to consistent success and two more national championships during a 14-year tenure with the team. Among the players that Thomas coached were Harry Gilmer, Don Hutson and Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Bryant returned to his alma mater as head coach in December 1957, leaving Texas A&M. In his fourth season at the Capstone (1961), Bryant led the Crimson Tide to their sixth national championship, which included Bryant's first bowl victory with Alabama. From 1961-66, Alabama went 60-5-1 (.917), won four Southeastern Conference Championships, enjoyed two undefeated seasons and won three national championships. During the 1970s, the Crimson Tide was one of the most dominant teams in college football history, winning eight conference titles and three national championships. Alabama posted a 103-16-1 (.863) record during the decade.

During his tenure, Bryant led Alabama to a 232-46-9 record. His achievements included six national championships, 13 Southeastern Conference titles and 11 bowl victories. In 25 seasons as head coach, he led the Crimson Tide to 24 consecutive bowl appearances. At the time of his retirement, he was the winningest coach in college football history.

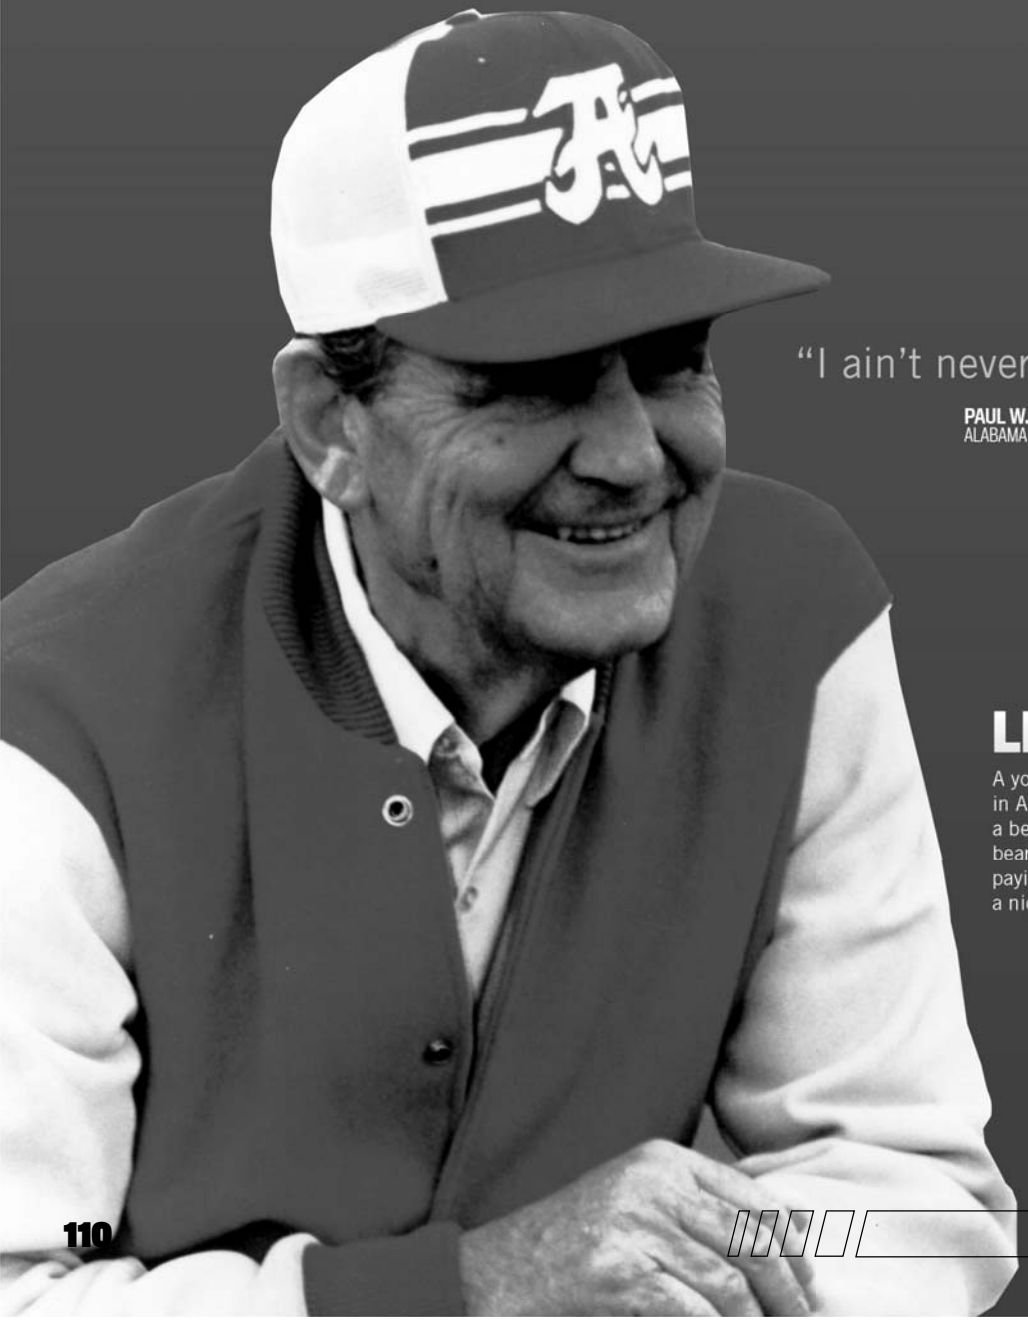
Gene Stallings, a former member of Bryant's famed "Junction Boys" at Texas A&M, had a successful seven-year run with the Tide from 1990-96, leading Alabama to the school's 12th national title in 1992.

Alabama's current head coach Nick Saban already has left his stamp on the football program at the Capstone entering his seventh season. In 2012, the Crimson Tide captured its third national championship under Saban, its second straight and 15th overall, with a 42-14 win over Notre Dame in the 2013 BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 14th title during the 2011 season with a commanding 21-0 shutout of LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide went undefeated and claimed its 13th national championship in 2009 with wins over Florida in the SEC Championship Game and Texas in the BCS National Championship Game. The 2010 Crimson Tide posted a 10-3 record and won the Capital One Bowl. In 2008, the Crimson Tide went 12-2. Alabama has posted a 49-5 mark over the past four seasons.

THE ORIGINS OF THE NAME CRIMSON TIDE

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football, the team was simply listed as "The Varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. The first nickname to become popular and used by headline writers was the "Thin Red Line." That nickname was used until 1906. The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald. He used "Crimson Tide" in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907, the last football contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide." Zipp Newman, former sports editor of The Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

THE BEAR



"I ain't never been nothin' but a winner."

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
ALABAMA HEAD COACH 1958-1982

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. Bryant didn't get the buck that day, but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at the University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense in 1971 to revamp the Tide program. Over the next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and sending Bryant atop college football's all-time leaderboard for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide win the initial SEC Championship and a national championship. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year he made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. Bryant guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama.

"We are fortunate to play our home games in one of the finest football facilities in the nation. Our fans enjoy fantastic campus activities prior to the game and then move into a state-of-the-art facility to watch the game. The atmosphere is second-to-none."

MAL MOORE
FORMER ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

With recent renovation projects of $47 and $65 million to renovate and expand the north and south end zones, Bryant-Denney Stadium truly is one of the top football facilities in the nation. The current seating capacity of 101,821 makes Bryant-Denny Stadium one of the nation's largest on-campus football stadiums. The most recent renovation not only pushed capacity to 101,821, but it gave Bryant-Denny Stadium an additional 36 skyboxes and 1,700 club seats. The 2010 renovation marked the fourth expansion of this magnificent edifice since 1988 and was the seventh time Bryant-Denny Stadium has been expanded since it originally was constructed in 1929. Other expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998 and 2006.

The 2006 expansion project, which began immediately following the 2004 football season, also added three levels of premium seating, a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone, and state-of-the-art, wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

BRYANT-DENNY CAPACITY THROUGH THE YEARS

1929	12,000
1946	31,000
1961	43,000
1966	59,000
1988	70,123
1998	83,818
2006	92,138
2010	101,821

A unique aspect of the "new" stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game-day Saturdays, honors Alabama's national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide's 15 national and 23 SEC titles.

The 2006 expansion added 38 luxury skyboxes, bringing the total number of skyboxes in the stadium to 123. The most recent expansion increased that number to 159 skyboxes. Other additions included a club level area and traditional upper-deck seating. Office space also is included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone. A state-of-the-art sound system was installed in 2005.

Since those early games, a number of projects have expanded Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current capacity. When Alabama and Hawai'i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama. That record fell when 101,821 fans filled the seats for the Crimson Tide's 2010 season opener against San Jose State.

The 1998 east side expansion added 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, also were added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64). In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was installed in the south end.

Other recent additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The 2012 season was only the 12th time in the stadium's history that Alabama has played all of its home games at Bryant-Denny. From 1900 until 2003, Alabama played at least one home game at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 225-52-3 (.809) all-time record at Bryant-Denny Stadium and a 312-65-3 (.825) mark in all games played in Tuscaloosa. Dating back to the 1988 renovation of Bryant-Denny Stadium, more than 14.2 million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 171 home games over the past 25 seasons.

TOP BOWL TEAM

The Crimson Tide defeated Georgia in the 2012 SEC Championship Game, propelling them to their second straight BCS title match and ninth consecutive bowl game, a feat that has not occurred at The Capstone since the Tide went bowling 10 straight seasons from 1985 to 1994.

The Tide has been to more bowl games (60) than any team in the country.

The Alabama football team has made an NCAA-leading 60 bowl appearances. The Crimson Tide has played in more bowl games (60) and earned more bowl wins (34) than any team in college football history. Alabama has 13 Sugar Bowl appearances and more Sugar Bowl wins (eight) than any other program in the bowl's storied history. The Tide also has made eight Orange Bowl appearances, seven Cotton Bowl appearances and played in six Rose Bowl games. The Crimson Tide also has three BCS National Championship Game appearances with victories in the Rose Bowl in 2010, the Superdome in 2012 and Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens in 2013. Alabama has been bowling for nine consecutive seasons, something that had not happened since the Crimson Tide played in 10 straight bowl games from 1985-94.

THE BEST IN THE SEC

ALABAMA OWNS 23 CONFERENCE TITLES

Alabama has a winning record against every school in the Southeastern Conference.

The Southeastern Conference begins its 81st season of play in 2013 fresh off of an expansion in 2012. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virture of its 5-0-1 conference record, and has won a total of 23 SEC titles in the school illustrious history.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season and Texas A&M and Missouri begin play in the fall of 2012.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992, at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. The SEC Championship Game moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994 and has been staged there ever since.

ALABAMA HAS BEEN A FORCE IN THE SEC OVER THE PAST FIVE SEASONS

Alabama dominated the 2008 and 2009 seasons in Southeastern Conference play with a 16-0 combined mark in the regular season, capturing back-to-back SEC Western Division championships and the 2009 SEC championship. Alabama then finished the 2010 league slate with a 5-3 record in fourth place. The 2011 season saw the Crimson Tide win the program's 14th national championship but finish second in the SEC West to LSU, who the Tide would later defeat 21-0 in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 23rd SEC championship in 2012, followed by its 15th national championship. The 2012 SEC slate began with a 52-0 shutout of No. 21 Arkansas in Fayetteville. The Tide then opened the SEC home slate with a 33-14 win over Mississippi, before visiting Missouri for the first time since 1978 and posting a 42-10 victory. A 44-13 win at Tennessee followed before the Tide defeated Mississippi State at home by a score of 38-7. Alabama then ventured to Tiger Stadium for a showdown with No. 5 LSU and quarterback AJ McCarron engineered a last-minute touchdown drive for the 21-17 win. The Tide then suffered its only loss of the season to Texas A&M, 29-24. All that was left in the regular season was the Iron Bowl and, for the fourth time in five years, Alabama proved victorious with a 49-0 win over rival Auburn. Alabama won a dramatic SEC title game over Georgia, 32-28, for the program's 23rd league title.

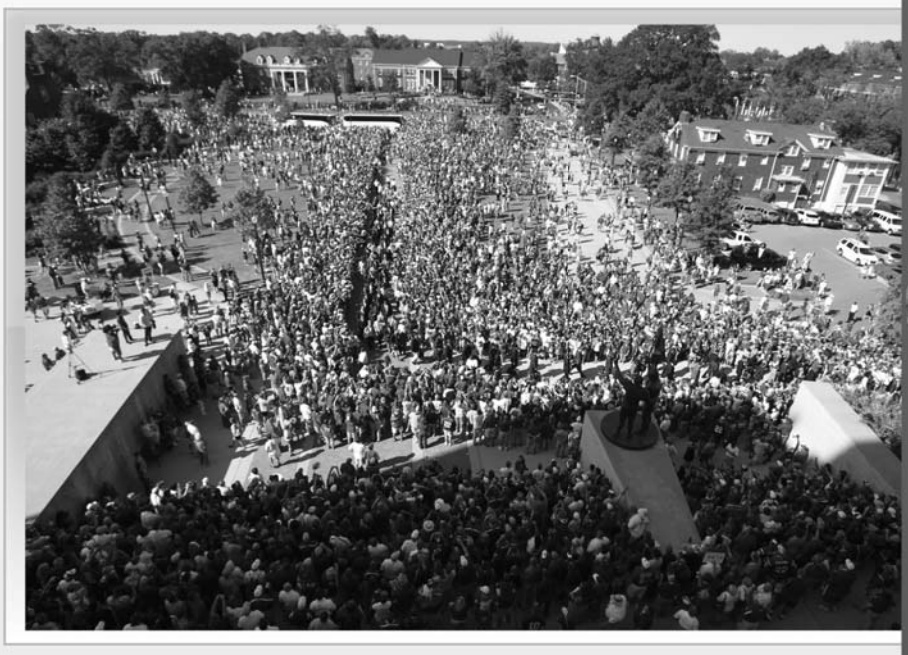
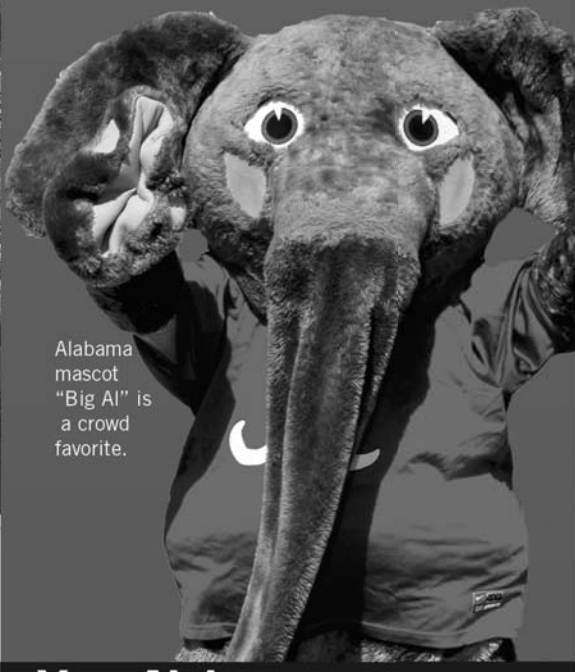
WALK OF CHAMPIONS

The Crimson Tide arrives at Bryant-Denny every week to the sounds of thousands of fans along each side of "The Walk of Champions"



On any given Saturday during football season, it is not unheard of to have 20,000 fans outside the stadium during the game. Tailgating and hanging out on the Quad are part of the Alabama tradition. People arrive early to see the band as the cheerleaders lead the crowd, and they stay late to make sure they haven't missed anything, especially "Rammer Jammer."

DON'T FORGET THE LYRICS!



Alabama mascot "Big Al" is a crowd favorite.

Yea, Alabama

(Alabama Fight Song)

Yea, Alabama! Drown 'em Tide!
Every 'Bama man's behind you,
Hit your stride.
Go teach the Bulldogs to behave,
Send the Yellow Jackets
to a watery grave.
And if a man starts to weaken,
That's a shame!
For Bama's pluck and grit have
Writ her name in Crimson flame.
Fight on, fight on, fight on men!
Remember the Rose Bowl,
we'll win then.
So roll on to victory,
Hit your stride,
You're Dixie's football pride,
Crimson Tide, Roll Tide, Roll Tide!!

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPITAL OF THE NATION

"When it comes to spring football spectacles, it doesn't get any bigger than Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

CHRIS FOWLER
HOST, ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL GAMEDAY

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole new meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point. ESPN has taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring. The ESPN family of networks have televised four of the last five A-Day Games nationally on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU. The 2012 game was televised by Comcast. The last seven spring games have seen an average of 84,979 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium. The 2008 game had 78,200 with 84,050 showing up in 2009. A crowd of 91,312 came out in 2010 and a school-record 92,310 in 2011. The 2012 game had 78,526 in attendance and 78,315 fans witnessed the 2013 event. Over the past seven years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 594,851 fans for its annual A-Day Game. Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their hand prints and foot prints placed in cement to recognize their roles as team leaders. The 2012 captains were offensive lineman Barrett Jones, defensive lineman Damion Square and offensive lineman Chance Warmack.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football due to its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide was broadcast on network television 11 times in 2012 and has seen 53 games nationally televised since 2008. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at four of Alabama's 2008 games, three in 2009, two more in 2010, three in 2011 and four in 2012. Alabama's popularity also has been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of many of those publications in recent years. The Tide appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated four times in 2012 and three times in 2011. The 2012 covers featured AJ McCarron on the preseason college football issue and on the national championship commemorative issue. Eddie Lacy was highlighted on the issue leading up to the national championship game and following the title tilt with Notre Dame. In 2011, Trent Richardson was on the college football preview cover, Josh Chapman on the "Ram! Jam! 'Bama!" cover and the defense was featured in the Tide's 21-0 shutout of LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. Alabama made one SI cover in 2010 and three times in 2009, including the "Dynasty" cover following Alabama's 37-21 win over Texas in the BCS Championship Game. In 2008, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes. Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

NATIONAL TITLES

AN UNMATCHED LEGACY

From the roaring 1920s and Wade Wallace, through legendary coach Frank Thomas, on to the dynasty that was the Paul "Bear" Bryant era, through Gene Stallings' 1992 national championship team and, finally, Nick Saban's championships in 2009, 2011 and 2012, the Alabama Crimson Tide have helped define college football. The Crimson Tide has captured a college football-best 15 national championships and an impressive 27 conference titles, including a conference-best 23 SEC titles. Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wade won Alabama's first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings' 1992 team has proven to be one of the best in college football history. Saban's 2009 team carved an identity of its own with suffocating defense and an efficient and explosive offense. That 14-0 team produced the school and conference record for wins in a season, defeated No. 1 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and bested No. 2 Texas in the BCS National Championship Game to claim the title. The 2011 team avenged a regular-season loss to LSU in the BCS National Championship with a resounding 21-0 shutout of the Tigers in New Orleans. The defense was historic in 2011, leading all four major catergories nationally while the offense averaged almost 35 points per game. In 2012, Alabama beat LSU with a last-second comeback in Death Valley, escaped the SEC Championship Game with a 32-28 win over Georgia, and finished the year off with a crushing 42-14 victory over then-No. 1 Notre Dame in the BCS National Championship Game.

THE FIRST TITLE 1925

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena, and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope," Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win.

In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler also were All-Southern Conference selections.

PASADENA BOUND

1926

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the 1926 national championship before thea Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then-powerful Sewanne. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanne contest. The very next week, Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. Alabama clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

PERFECTION

ALL-AMERICAN
FRED SINGTON

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note.

Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the 1930 All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks. Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second unit, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors.

Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM"

1934

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief that the 1934 team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary end Don Hutson, who some 56 years later would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packer, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another score. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing yards and 160 passing.

1941 COTTON BOWL CHAMPS

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football.

Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frankie Sinkwich, along with Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami. In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a 1961 national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its opponents 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl.

North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7. The seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bear Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

BROADWAY JOE

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally-televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game.

Namath and his teammates contended then, and now, that the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the 1964 AP and UPI National Champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day.

Namath, halfback/kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-American teams.

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPS 1965

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. The Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Mississippi and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, their second in a row.

The Crimson Tide's season earned them a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams, but with number one Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and number two Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The teams traded blows for much of the game but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

CLASH OF THE TITANS

HALFBACK
WILBUR JACKSON

It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advance publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings.

Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion. Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

GOAL-LINE STAND

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama went on to win 11 games in 1978. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end of the game with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest-hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from the Alabama goal line, Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. Guman was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders, led by All-America linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman inches shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.

RUNNING BACK
MAJOR OGILVIE

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more with the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide faced its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who then were a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major Ogilvie as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. Ogilvie scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Bryant his sixth and final championship.

HIGH TIDE

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the 1992 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents under 12 points. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards, and the legs of running back Derrick Lassic, who ran for 905 yards. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions with defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague tied with six a piece.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in-state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship Game.

Alabama's perfect regular-season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes en route to a 34-13 victory. Alabama finished the season with a 13-0 record and the program's 12th national championship.

Nick Saban's 2009 national championship team had the perfect combination of suffocating defense, a potent rushing attack, a winning quarterback and outstanding special teams. The 2009 team captured the program's 13th national championship and the school's 22nd SEC Championship with a 14-0 record. The Crimson Tide conquered every challenge placed in front of them, including a 32-13 thrashing of top-ranked Florida in the SEC Championship Game and a 37-21 triumph over Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

The Crimson Tide produced a record six first team Associated Press All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC selections. Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner and Rolando McClain claimed the Butkus Award and the Lambert Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker. Ingram set a school record with 1,658 rushing yards with 20 total touchdowns while averaging 189.0 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns in six games against nationally-ranked opponents. McClain led the team with 105 tackles while accounting for 14.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback Greg McElroy completed 61 percent of his passes for 2,508 yards with 17 touchdowns. His 81.25 pass attempts for every interception thrown in 2009 was the second-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning.

Alabama knocked off six top 25 opponents on the way to the national championship with wins over No. 7 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Mississippi, No. 22 South Carolina, No. 9 LSU, No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Texas. Maybe the Tide's toughest wins came in hotly contested games with rivals Tennessee and Auburn. UA used two blocked field goals by Terrence Cody against the Vols to escape with a 12-10 win and then used a fourth-quarter drive, engineered by McElroy, for a 26-21 win over the Tigers on the Plains.

DOMINATION IN THE DOME

The 2011 Alabama Crimson Tide claimed the school's 14th National Championship behind one of the best defenses in the history of college football, a powerful running game and a veteran leadership group that kept the Tide focused through all of the peaks and valleys of a challenging season. Alabama kept its composure following a 9-6 overtime loss to LSU in the ninth week of the season and earned a rematch with the Tigers in the 2012 Allstate BCS National Championship Game inside the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The rematch only reinforced the divide between the Crimson Tide and the rest of college football as Alabama handed the previously undefeated Tigers a resounding 21-0 loss in the season's title game. It was the first shutout in Bowl Championship Series history and the first time since Miami in 1991 that a team pitched a shutout to secure the national title.

Alabama produced an astounding seven first-team All-Americans, including Mark Barron, Barrett Jones, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie, Trent Richardson and Courtney Upshaw. Richardson became Alabama's first Doak Walker Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. Jones received the Outland Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. Carson Tinker accepted the Disney Spirit Award for the team's efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

Richardson set a school record with 1,679 rushing yards to go along with 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores. Hightower led the team with 85 total tackles while Upshaw accounted for a team-high 18 tackles for loss (-90 yards) and 9.5 sacks (-62 yards) plus one interception return for a touchdown, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback AJ McCarron completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns. McCarron threw only five interceptions or one ever 65.6 pass attempts in 2011, which was the third-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning and Greg McElroy.

The Crimson Tide won its 12 games by an average of 29.1 points per game and outscored all opponents by a margin of 453-106. Alabama beat the likes No. 23 Penn State, No. 14 Arkansas, No. 12 Florida and No. 1 LSU on its way to the national championship while finishing 7-1 in the SEC. The Tide traveled to Penn State for a 27-11 win and then came home to defeat the high-powered Razorbacks 38-14. Alabama rolled in a trip to the Swamp with a 38-10 win over the Gators and was victorious against Tennessee 37-6. The Iron Bowl was all crimson and white as the Crimson Tide beat Auburn 42-14 on the plains without allowing the Tigers to score an offensive touchdown.

Defensively, Alabama put together one of the best seasons in the modern era of college football. The Crimson Tide led the nation in the four major categories: scoring defense (8.2 ppg), total defense (183.6 ypg), rush defense (72.2 ppg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69) while also leading the nation in pass defense at 111.46 ypg. Alabama was only the second team to lead the nation in all four defensive categories and the first since Oklahoma in 1986. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 429.6 yards per game while scoring 34.85 points per game, statistics that ranked fourth and fifth respectively in school history.

The Alabama football team established its dominance early against Notre Dame on its way to an overwhelming performance as the Crimson Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

The title, Alabama's third in the past four seasons, concluded a 13-1 season for the Tide while Notre Dame fell to 12-1 with the loss. Tide quarterback AJ McCarron passed for four touchdowns and 264 yards while completing 20 of 28 attempts without throwing an interception. Running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown while averaging seven yards per carry, wide receiver Amari Cooper caught six passes for 105 yards and two scores, and running back T.J. Yeldon rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tide offense flourished behind an outstanding performance by its offensive line. Alabama gained 529 total yards while exhibiting incredible balance, rushing for 265 yards and passing for 264.

Alabama's 2012 senior class won a school record 49 games over the past four seasons while losing only five contests. The 48 wins is tied for the second most in college football history and ranks among the best four-year totals in Southeastern Conference history (Florida won 48 games from 2006-09 and Alabama won 48 from 2008-11). Nebraska holds the record for senior class wins among BCS schools, with the 1997 Cornhuskers class posting a 49-2 record and three national championships. The Crimson Tide has 61 victories since the start of the 2008 season, the most in a five-year span in major college football history (Nebraska, 60 from 1993-97).

Alabama produced four first team All-Americans in 2012, giving them 22 All-America honors by 19 different players over the past five years. The 2012 first team All-Americans include Barrett Jones, Dee Milliner, C.J. Mosley and Chance Warmack. D.J. Fluker was also a second-team All-American and AJ McCarron garnered third-team honors. Jones became Alabama's first William V. Campbell and Rimington Trophy winners while also being a finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy. He started at three different positions along the offensive line for three National Championship teams in four years as a starter for the Tide.

McCarron led the Alabama offense with a school-record 30 touchdown passes while leading the nation with a 175.28 pass efficiency rating. He threw for 2,933 yards with only three interceptions while completing 67.2 percent of his passes. Lacy led the way on the ground with 1,322 yards and 17 scores. Yeldon added a freshman record 1,108 yards and 12 rushing touchdowns. Cooper led all receivers with a freshman-record 59 receptions for 1,000 yards and 11 scores.

The Crimson Tide won 13 games by an average of 28 points per game and outscored all opponents by a margin of 542-139. Alabama beat the likes No. 8 Michigan in Dallas, No. 21 Arkansas, No. 11 Mississippi State and No. 5 LSU. Alabama defeated No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game for the program's 23rd SEC title. The Tide finished 7-1 in the SEC, losing only to No. 15 Texas A&M.

Defensively, Alabama put together another outstanding season, leading the in three major categories: scoring defense (10.9 ppg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and rush defense (76.4 ppg) Alabama pitched four shutouts, the most since the 1979 team had five. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 445.5 yards per game while scoring 38.7 points per game. UA's 542 points in 2012 was a school record.

1925 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Bruce Jones
Fact: Alabama outscored its 10 opponents by a combined total of 297 to 26, shutting out eight teams and clinching national honors with a monumental 20-19 win over Washington in the Rose Bowl.

1926 — 9-0-1

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Emile "Red" Barnes
Fact: The Crimson Tide won its second consecutive national title in impressive style, posting shutouts in six games and not allowing any opponent to score more than seven points in a game.

1930 — 10-0

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Charles B. Clement
Fact: What was perhaps Wallace Wade's greatest team was tested only twice - by Tennessee and Vanderbilt - on the way to an undefeated season in which Alabama outscored opponents by a combined total of 217 to 13. The Tide capped off the season with a 24-0 shellacking of Washington State in the Rose Bowl.

1934 — 10-0

Team Captain: William Lee
Fact: A tough October win over Tennessee (13-6) paved the way for the Tide's first national title under head coach Frank Thomas. Alabama closed its impressive undefeated season with a 29-13 domination of Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

1941 — 9-2

Team Captain: John Wyhonic
Fact: Rated the nation's best team by the Houlgate system, the 1941 Crimson Tide capped a 9-2 season with a remarkable 29-21 win over a powerful Texas A&M team at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

1961 — 11-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Pat Trammell, Billy Neighbors
Fact: A suffocating defense, a steady offense, and opportunistic special teams made this unit impossible to defeat. Alabama shutout six opponents overall, not allowing its final five foes in the regular season to score before capping the season with a 10-3 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

1964 — 10-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Joe Namath, Ray Ogden
Fact: Awarded the title on a consensus basis at the end of the regular season, this squad eked out close wins over Florida (17-14), LSU (17-9) and Auburn (21-14) to earn the national title. A controversial Orange Bowl loss to Texas, 21-17, was the only blemish on Alabama's glorious season.

1965 — 9-1-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Steve Sloan, Paul Crane
Fact: The nation respected this team so much that the Tide was named consensus national champions despite a season-opening loss at Georgia (18-17) and a midseason tie with Tennessee (7-7). Alabama's stunning 39-28 Orange Bowl win over previously dominant Nebraska removed any doubt of the Tide's legitimacy as national champions.

1973 — 13-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Wilbur Jackson, Chuck Strickland
Fact: The last national champions to be crowned at the end of the regular season, the Crimson Tide outscored its first 11 opponents 454 to 89 en route to a showdown in the Sugar Bowl with Notre Dame.

1978 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Marty Lyons, Jeff Rutledge, Tony Nathan
Fact: The Crimson Tide lost only to co-national title contender Southern California in the regular season. Alabama's memorable 14-7 win over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl was the climax of an impressive season.

1979 — 11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Don McNeal, Steve Whitman
Fact: The consensus national champions outscored their 12 opponents by a total of 383 to 67. After a comeback win over Auburn (25-18) to end the regular season, Alabama dominated Arkansas and leaped to the top of the polls after their win in the Sugar Bowl.

1992 — 12-0

Head Coach: Gene Stallings
Team Captains: Derrick Oden, George Teague, George Wilson, Prince Wimbley
Fact: This team had it all. After a tight win over Florida (28-21) in the SEC title game, Alabama then crushed Miami in the Sugar Bowl to seal the title for its 12th national championship.

2009 — 14-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Javier Arenas, Mike Johnson, Rolando McClain
Fact: Two blocked field goals propelled the Tide to a midseason win over Tennessee and into the SEC Championship Game where they exacted revenge on Florida with a dominating 32-13 win. UA then blitzed Texas in the BCS National Championship Game, 37-21.

2011 — 12-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Mark Barron, Dont'a Hightower, Trent Richardson
Fact: Alabama overcame an early November overtime loss to No. 1 LSU and earned a rematch in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. In the Bayou Bengals' backyard, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Crimson Tide exacted revenge with a 21-0 shutout, which was the first in BCS history.

2012 — 13-1

Head Coach: Nick Saban
Team Captains: Barrett Jones, Damion Square, Chance Warmack
Fact: Alabama posted a last-minute comeback to win at No. 5 LSU and escaped with a dramatic 32-28 win over No. 3 Georgia in the SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide then rolled over No. 1 Notre Dame in the Discover BCS National Championship Game, 42-14, for the program's 15th title.

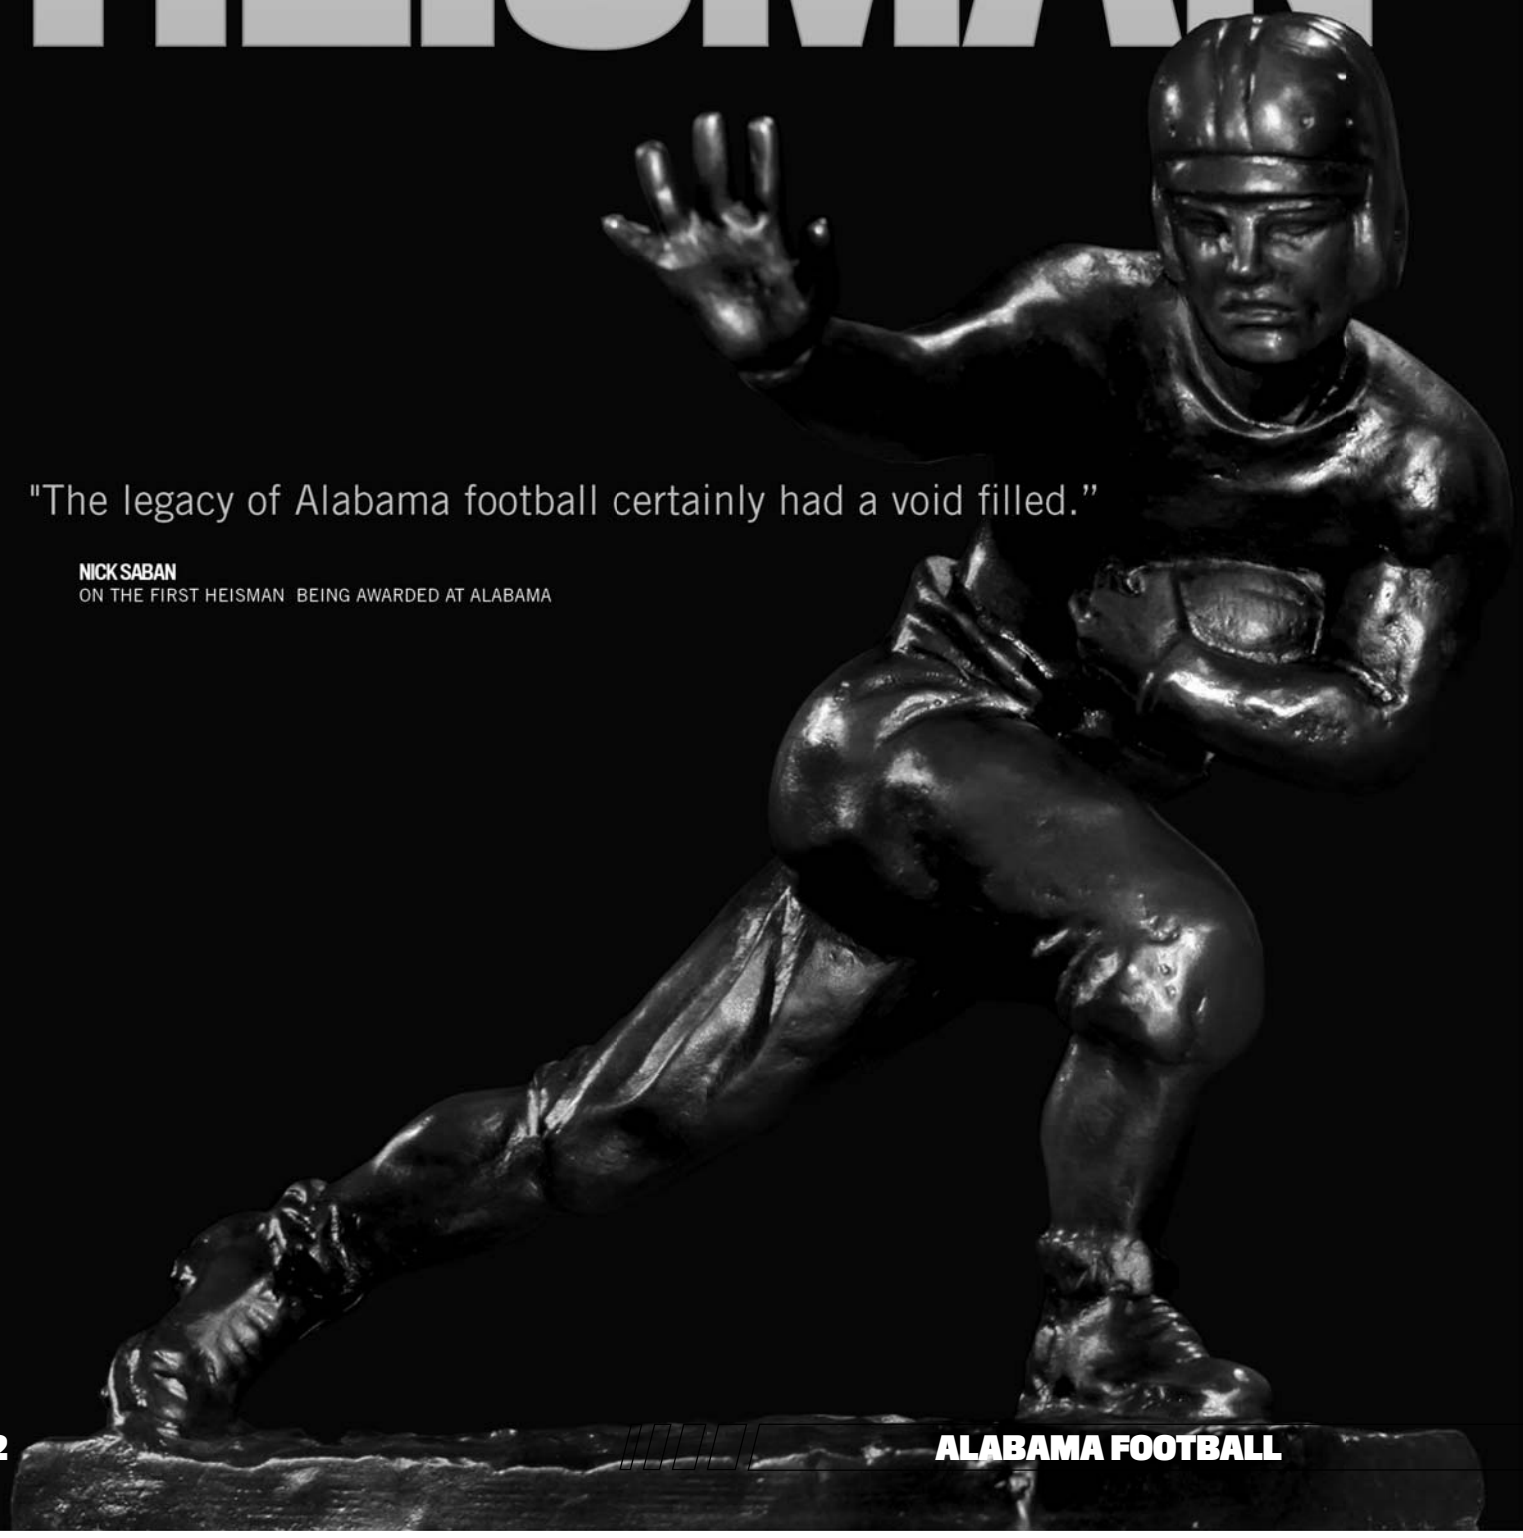
THE HEISMAN

In 2009, Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram became the 75th recipient of the Heisman Trophy and first Crimson Tide player to ever take home the honor.



"The legacy of Alabama football certainly had a void filled."

NICK SABAN
ON THE FIRST HEISMAN BEING AWARDED AT ALABAMA

Alabama boasts a rich and storied football history. Alabama has won 15 national championships, 26 conference championships, produced 104 first team All-Americans, 23 members of the College Football Hall of Fame and numerous national award winners. But until 2009, Alabama had never laid claim to the most celebrated and sought-after award in college athletics – the Heisman Trophy. The Heisman is a national symbol of the collegiate football experience and unmatched competitiveness. The Crimson Tide had been represented by numerous finalists over the years, but none of the first 74 Heisman Trophies found a home in Tuscaloosa.

All of that changed as a sophomore from Flint, Mich., burst into the nation's consciousness in 2009, breaking tackles all the way to the Nokia Theater in New York City's Times Square where Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner. He edged Stanford's Toby Gerhart by 28 points to capture the most coveted award in college football, tallying 1,304 points and 227 first-place votes in the closest Heisman Trophy vote in the award's history.

Ingram is one of 11 players in Southeastern Conference history to win the Heisman Trophy as the SEC has produced four in the last six years, joining 2007 winner Tim Tebow (Florida), 2010 winner Cam Newton (Auburn) and 2012 winner Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M). Other SEC winners include Frank Sinkwich (Georgia, 1942), Billy Cannon (LSU, 1959), Steve Spurrier (Florida, 1966), Pat Sullivan (Auburn, 1971), Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1982), Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) and Danny Wuerffel (Florida, 1996).

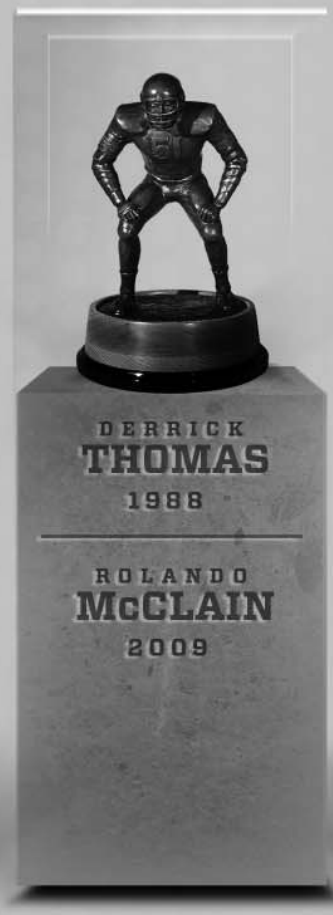
Ingram produced a 2009 season that was one for the Alabama football history books. He rushed for a then-school-record 1,658 yards with 20 total touchdowns in 14 games for 118.43 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Ingram added 30 receptions for 322 yards and three scores. His 1,992 all-purpose yards is the second-highest single-season total in school history. Ingram also gained an astonishing 1,075 yards - or 54 percent of his all-purpose yards - after contact. His numbers climbed even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent were ranked in the top 25, accounting for 1,134 all-purpose yards or 189.0 ypg, six games against top-25 foes, including four against top-10 teams.

Known as the DAC Trophy when it first was presented to Jay Berwagner, the legendary "one man gang" of the University of Chicago on Dec. 9, 1935, the bronze statue depicts a football player side-stepping and straight arming a tackler. Cast in the highly artistic method known as the lost wax process of bronze medal molding, the statue weighs 45 pounds and is 14 inches long, 13 and a half inches in height and six and a half inches in width. It was designed by New York sculptor Frank Eliscu, who was commissioned by the Downtown Athletic Club to create a figure of a football player in imperishable bronze to serve as an annual trophy award. Eliscu used his friend, Ed Smith, a starter on the New York University Football team, as the player model for his initial creations.

However, reference to the award as the DAC Trophy was only used once. Following the death of John Heisman in October, 1936 (Heisman at the time was the Director of Athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club), the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Today, the annual award involves the use of two statues. One is presented to the college football player selected for excellence and this remains the permanent possession of the winner. A second trophy is awarded to the school represented by the winner.

BEST of the BEST

NATIONAL COLLEGE FOOTBALL AWARD WINNERS



BROYLES AWARD

The Frank Broyles Award was established to recognize some of the most dedicated, hardest working people in America – the college football assistant coach. And, over the years, the award has done just that. Each year the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen from almost 1,500 assistant coaches representing the College Football Bowl Subdivision. Each head coach can nominate one assistant coach from his staff. Kirby Smart became Alabama's first Broyles Award Recipient in 2009. Smart guided one of the nation's top defenses as the Crimson Tide claimed the program's 13th National Championship.

BUTKUS AWARD

Alabama has produced two Butkus Award recipients in its history: Derrick Thomas in 1988 and Rolando McClain in 2009. The Butkus Award was formed in 1985 and is one of the elite individual honors in college football. In 2008, the Butkus Foundation took stewardship of the award to fully realize its original purpose of honoring athletic achievement and service to the community while honoring the nation's best college linebacker. An independent Butkus Award Selection Committee, headed by Pro Football Weekly's Hub Arkush is comprised of 51 experts, who conducts the selection process.

WILLIAM V. CAMBELL TROPHY

The William V. Campbell Trophy has become the most prestigious and desirable "academic" award in college football. The trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his academic success, football performance and exemplary community leadership. The finalists receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. The winner of the Campbell Trophy has his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000. Alabama offensive lineman Barrett Jones was the sixth Alabama player selected as a finalist and became the program's first winner in 2012.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

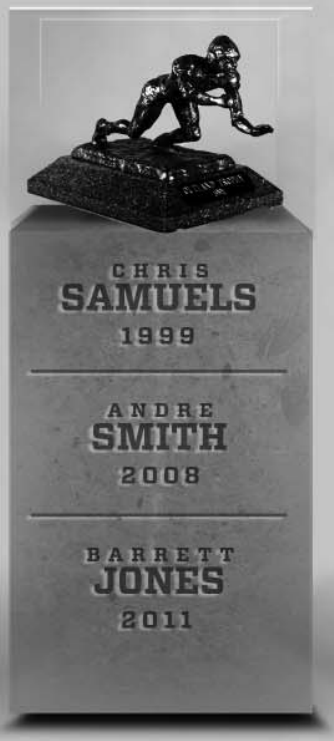
The Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievements in the classroom and citizenship in the community. Trent Richardson became Alabama's first winner in 2011 after a record-setting season at the Capstone. The Doak Walker Award is the only major college football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

LOMBARDI AWARD

The Rotary Lombardi Award has a storied history with college football and with the University of Alabama. Cornelius Bennett (1986) is the only Crimson Tide player to win the award, but nine Alabama players have been finalists, including both Dont'a Hightower and Courtney Upshaw in 2011. Criteria for the award require that a player be a down lineman on either side of the ball or a linebacker who lines up no farther than five yards from the ball. Now in its 43rd year, the Rotary Lombardi Award's two key elements remain unchanged: it is open to all college linemen and all net proceeds are contributed to the American Cancer Society.

LOTT TROPHY

The Lott IMPACT Trophy was established by The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation to honor college football's Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. The award is unique because it represents the first trophy to give equal weight to personal character as well as athletic performance from a defensive college player, and it is the first national college football award based on the West Coast. Alabama's DeMeco Ryans captured the award in 2005 and is the only Tide player to receive the honor. The Lott IMPACT Trophy is named in honor of Ronnie Lott.



OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is awarded to the best interior lineman in college football. Barrett Jones (2011) became the third Alabama player to be honored, joining Chris Samuels (1999) and Andre Smith (2008). The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) selects the winner from interior linemen on its 25-man All-America team. Awarded annually by the FWAA since 1946, it is named after the late John Outland, a lineman at Pennsylvania in the early 20th century. The Outland Trophy is the third-oldest award in major college football.

RIMINGTON TROPHY

Barrett Jones became the first Alabama player to receive the Rimington Trophy in 2012, presented annually to the nation's top center. Jones, a two-time All-American and 2011 Outland Trophy winner, was the Tide's third finalist, joining Antoine Caldwell (2008) and William Vlachos (2011). The Rimington Trophy is named in honor of former Nebraska center and College Football Hall of Fame member Dave Rimington, who was an All-American for the Cornhuskers in 1980-81, and is presented by the Boomer Esiason Foundation, which supports the treatment of cystic fibrosis. The trophy first was presented in 2000.

SPIRIT AWARD

The Disney Sports Spirit Award has been presented each year since 1996 to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. The Alabama football team, represented by Carson Tinker, was recognized for its efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that tore through Tuscaloosa. The award is not based on statistics or other on-field records or achievements, but rather for bravery, courage, overcoming adversity, and the love of college football.

JIM THORPE AWARD

The Jim Thorpe Award is presented annually to the best defensive back in college football. It was created in 1986. Winners are judged on their performance on the field, athletic ability and character. Antonio Langham (1992) is the only Alabama player to receive the award among numerous Crimson Tide finalists and semifinalists. A screening committee of the Jim Thorpe Association members follows progress of the cndidates and narrows the list to three finalists, who then are voted on by a national panel.

JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD

The Golden Arm Award, presented annually to the top senior quarterback by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Foundation, encapsulates all that is positive in college sports. The award acknowledges performance on the field and values character, citizenship, integrity and those who honor the game. Jay Barker is the only Alabama quarterback to be honored with the Johnny Unitas Gold Arm Award, winning in 1994.

WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All Sports Association of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement. Barrett Jones became the first Alabama player to win The Wuerffel Trophy in 2011. The award, named after former Fort Walton Beach native Danny Wuerffel, is presented annually to the Football Bowl Subdivision player who best combines exemplary community service with academic and athletic achievement.

Brown helped the Tide win the first Rose Bowl in 1926. He was on the receiving end of two touchdown passes, one a 58-yard strike from Grant Gillis and the other a 62-yard strike from Pooley Hubert. After college, he went on to star in Hollywood in several major motion pictures with some of the biggest stars in the business.

MARTY LYONS

2011

ALABAMA 1977-78

Former Alabama defensive lineman Marty Lyons was named to the 2011 class of the College Football Hall of Fame by the National Football Foundation.

Lyons, a native of Pinellas Park, Fla., was one of the Crimson Tide's great defensive linemen who played for legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1976-78. He was a consensus All-American in 1978 and a two-time All-SEC selection (1977 and 1978).

Lyons became the 23rd Alabama player or coach to be selected into the College Football Hall of Fame. Lyons, who was part of "The Goal Line Stand" in the 1979 Sugar Bowl, helped the Crimson Tide turn back Penn State 14-7 to capture the 1978 national championship.

He made 59 tackles with five tackles for loss in 1977 to earn first-team All-SEC honors before turning in a dominating senior campaign. Lyons' 1978 season included consensus All-America and All-SEC honors after recording 119 tackles and 15 tackles for loss. He served as a defensive captain for the 1978 national championship team and was selected to the Tide's Team of the Century and to the all-decade team of the 1970s.

Following his senior season, Lyons played in the 1979 Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Bowl. He was selected by the New York Jets with the 14th pick of the first round in the 1979 NFL Draft. Lyons played 11 NFL seasons, amassing 29 sacks as part of the Jets "New York Sack Exchange." He helped lead the Jets to the playoffs in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

NFL DRAFT

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Names such as Shaun Alexander, Cornelius Bennett, Joe Namath, Chris Samuels and Kenny Stabler have starred on the NFL gridiron after their career at Alabama. Recently, linebacker Demeco Ryans was the 2006 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and a 2008 Pro Bowl selection. Alabama had three first-round draft picks in 2013 and four in both 2010 and 2011, while churning out 33 draft picks over the past five years, including 14 in the first round. Those 14 first rounders are: Andre Smith (No. 6, Cincinnati, 2009), Rolando McClain (No. 8, Oakland, 2010), Kareem Jackson (No. 20, Houston, 2010), Marcell Dareus (No. 3 Buffalo, 2011), Julio Jones (No. 6, Atlanta, 2011), James Carpenter (No. 25, Seattle, 2011), Mark Ingram (No. 28, New Orleans, 2011), Trent Richardson (No. 3, Cleveland, 2012), Mark Barron (No. 7, Tampa Bay, 2012), Dre Kirkpatrick (No. 17, Cincinnati, 2012), Dont'a Hightower (No. 25, New England, 2012), Dee Milliner (No. 9, New York Jets, 2013), Chance Warmack (No. 10, Tennessee, 2013) and D.J. Fluker (No. 11, San Diego, 2013). If you count Courtney Upshaw (Balitmore), who went three picks into the second round, Alabama had five players drafted in the first 35 picks in the 2012 NFL Draft and four selected in the first two rounds in 2013 with Eddie Lacy going to the Green Bay Packers.

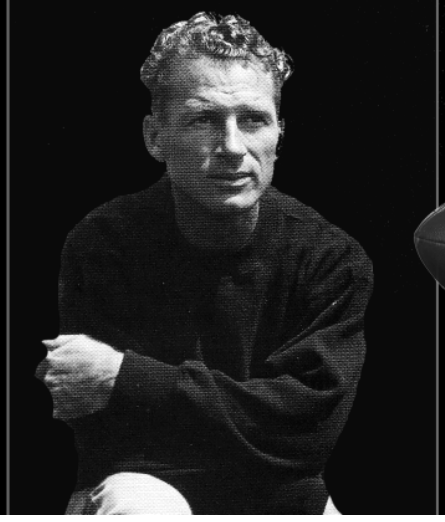
ALABAMA PLAYERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL

DON HUTSON
1963

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45
ALABAMA 1932-34

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.



BART STARR
1977

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-71
ALABAMA 1952-55

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time still was limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

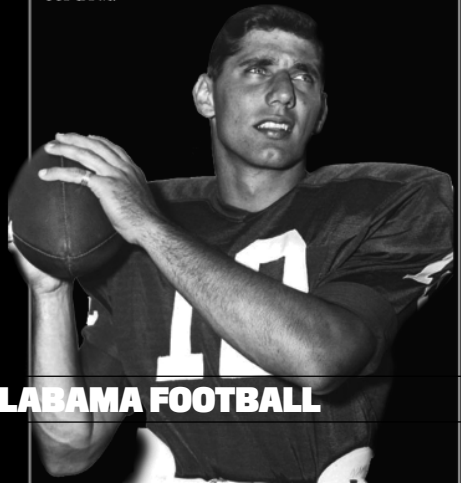
Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Bart's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Lombardi's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.

JOE NAMATH
1985

NEW YORK JETS 1965-76
ALABAMA 1962-64

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He also was elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.



The Kansas City Chiefs selected linebacker Derrick Thomas as the fourth player overall in the 1989 National Football League Draft. A consensus All-American and Dick Butkus Award winner at Alabama, Thomas excelled as a pass rusher who set the school record for sacks.

His pass-rushing specialty continued on the professional level as Thomas amassed 10 sacks as a rookie for the Chiefs in 1989. He added 75 tackles that season to earn Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Following the 1989 season, Thomas was named to his first of nine straight Pro Bowls.

Thomas displayed extraordinary pass-rushing skills throughout his 11-season career that tragically was cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks, which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

The contributions by Thomas to the Chiefs franchise were nearly immeasurable. Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, the team had made one playoff appearance since 1971. In the 11 years that Thomas anchored the defense, the Chiefs finished first or second in the AFC West 10times, made seven playoff appearances and won three division titles.

JOHN HANNAH

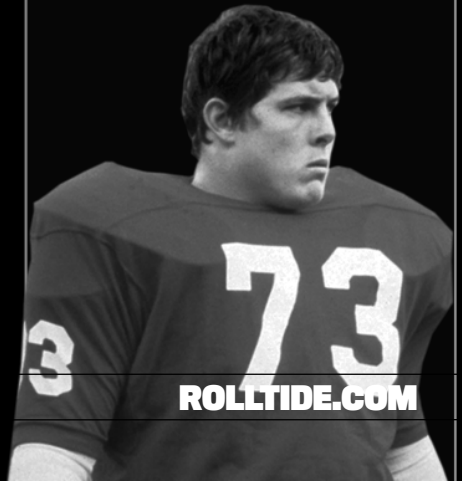
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-85
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a 6-2, 265-pound guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 National Football League Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time grid All-America at Alabama.

Hannah finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the vetern lineman.

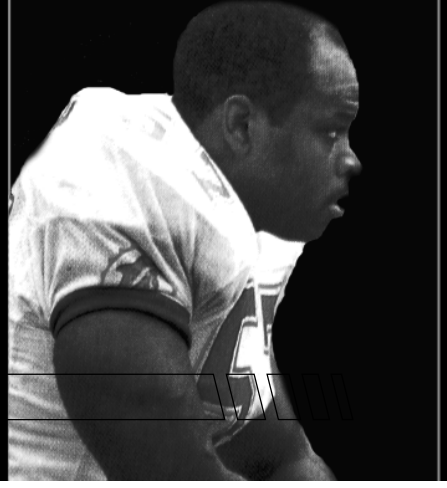


DWIGHT STEPHENSON

1998

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1980-87
ALABAMA 1977-79

Dwight Stephenson, who was born Nov. 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, N.C. He was a quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and possessed an explosive charge off the snap. Stephenson was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.



OZZIE NEWSOME

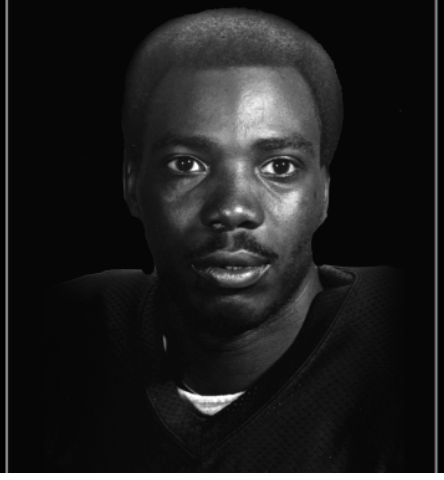
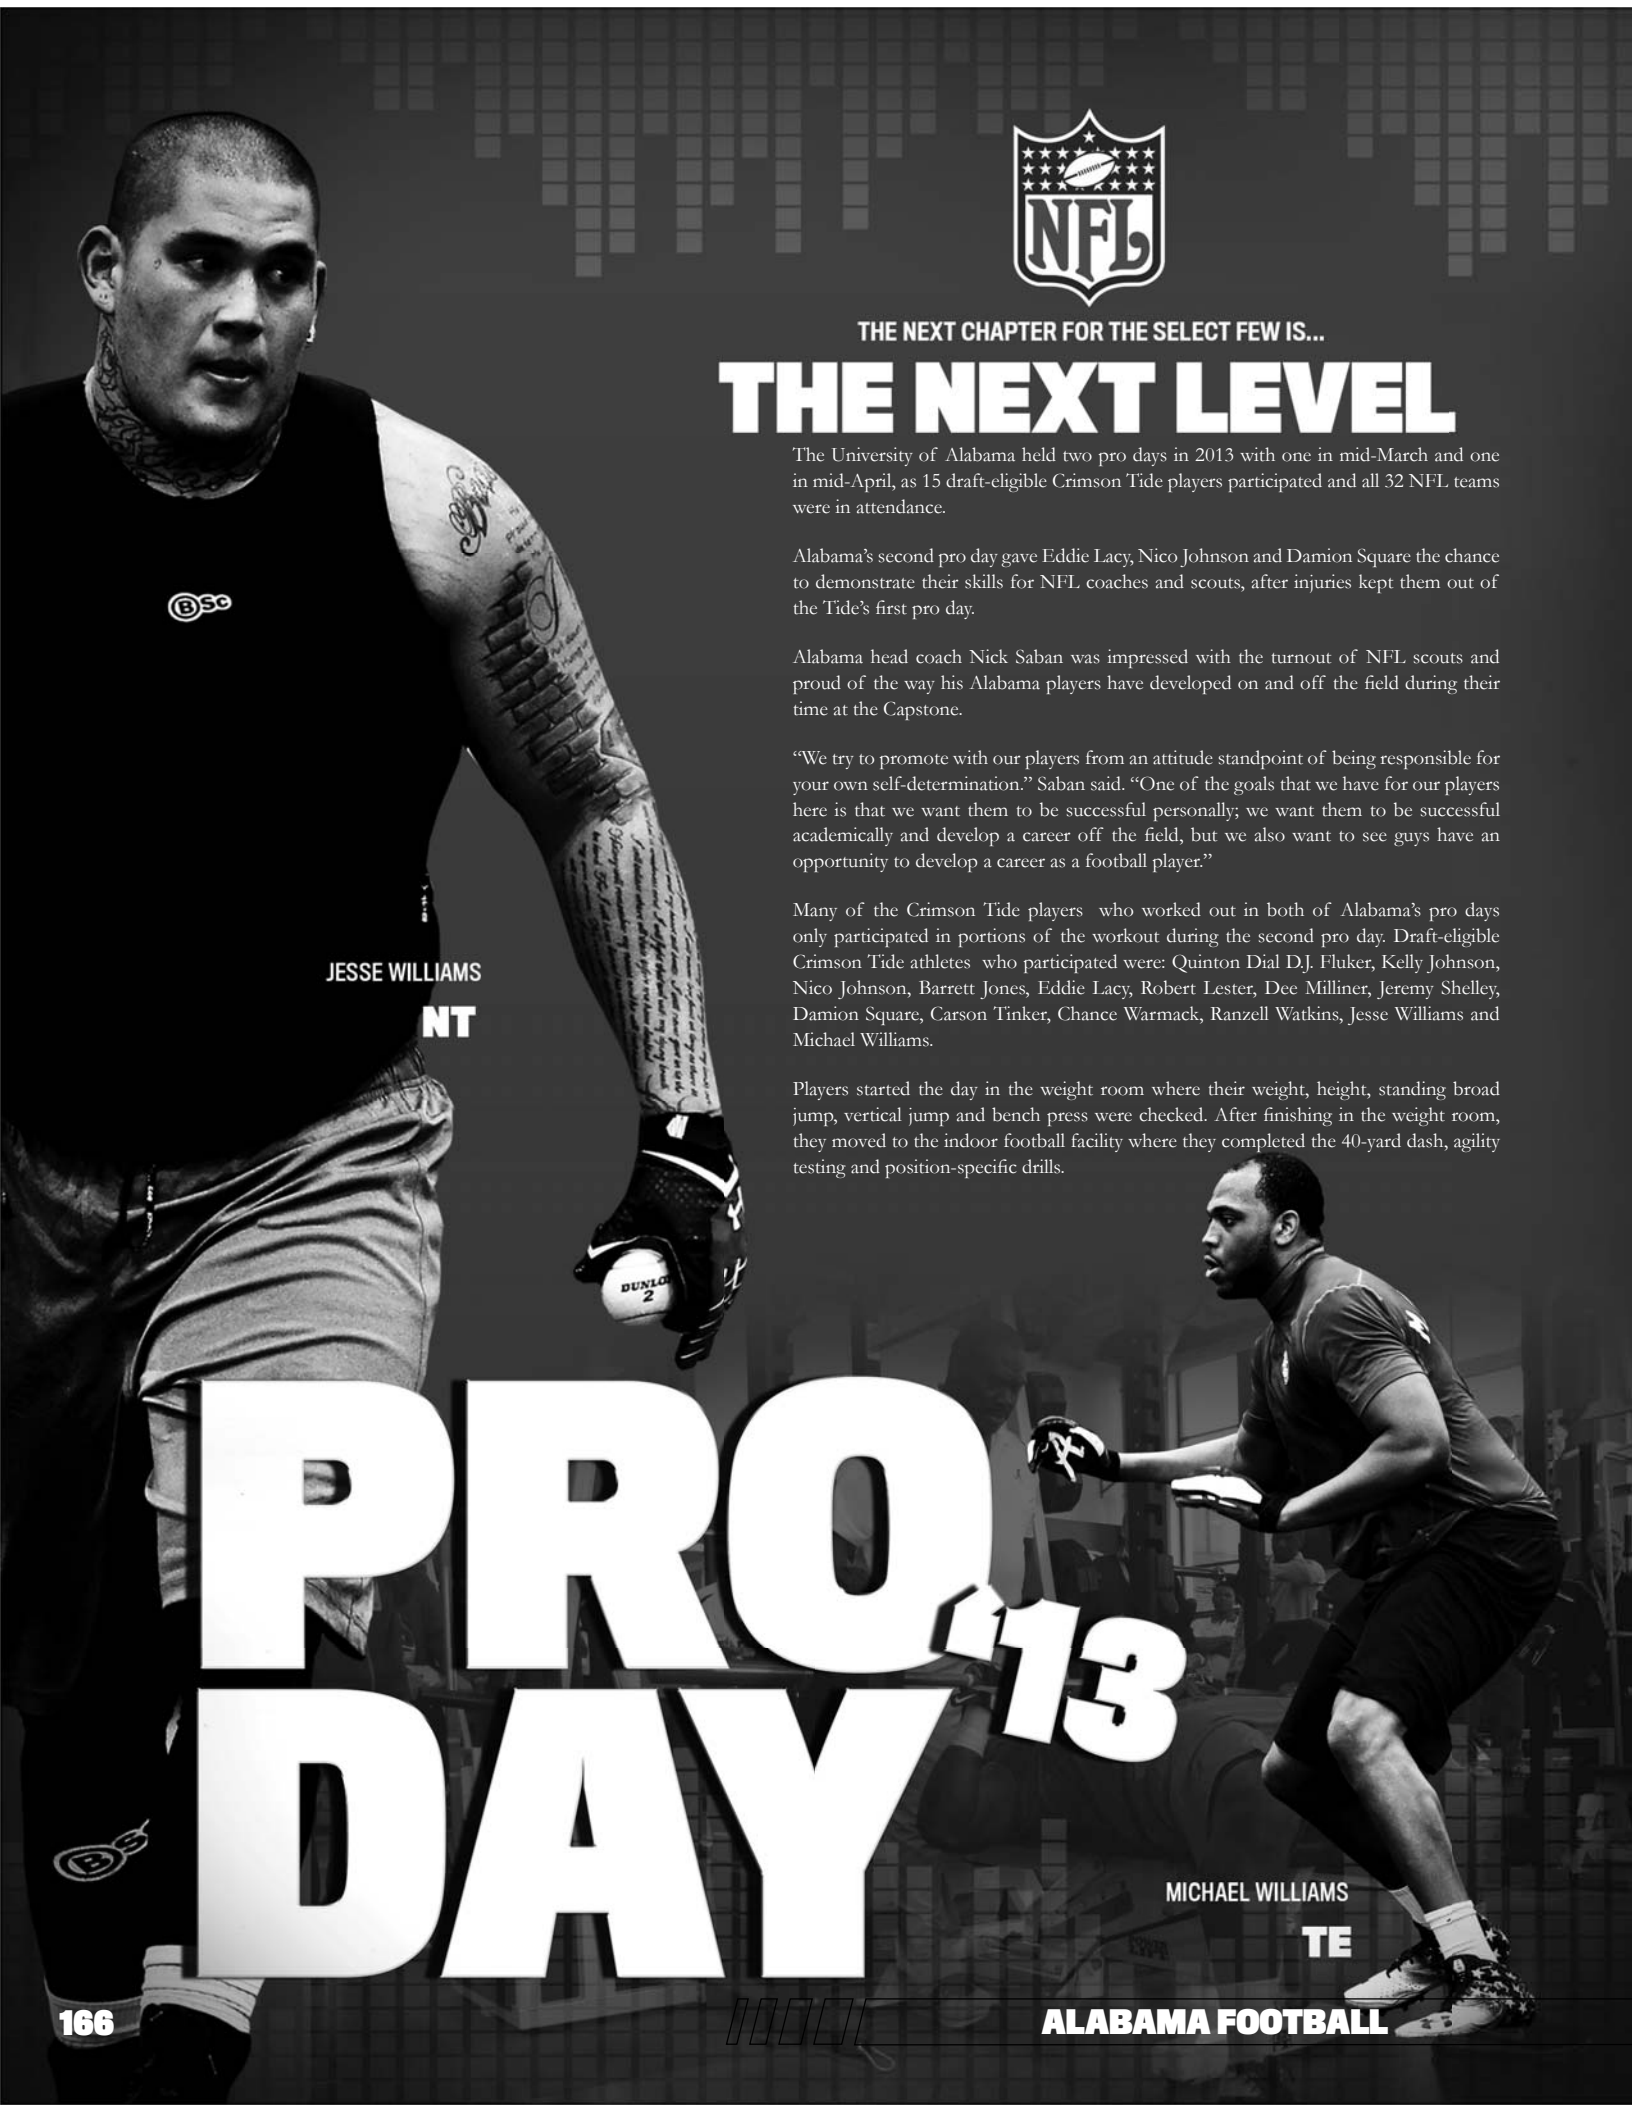
CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-90
ALABAMA 1974-77

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked as the fourth-leading receiver when he retired. Newsome is now the general manager of the Balitmore Ravens.





THE NEXT CHAPTER FOR THE SELECT FEW IS...

THE NEXT LEVEL

The University of Alabama held two pro days in 2013 with one in mid-March and one in mid-April, as 15 draft-eligible Crimson Tide players participated and all 32 NFL teams were in attendance.

Alabama's second pro day gave Eddie Lacy, Nico Johnson and Damion Square the chance to demonstrate their skills for NFL coaches and scouts, after injuries kept them out of the Tide's first pro day.

Alabama head coach Nick Saban was impressed with the turnout of NFL scouts and proud of the way his Alabama players have developed on and off the field during their time at the Capstone.

"We try to promote with our players from an attitude standpoint of being responsible for your own self-determination." Saban said. "One of the goals that we have for our players here is that we want them to be successful personally; we want them to be successful academically and develop a career off the field, but we also want to see guys have an opportunity to develop a career as a football player."

Many of the Crimson Tide players who worked out in both of Alabama's pro days only participated in portions of the workout during the second pro day. Draft-eligible Crimson Tide athletes who participated were: Quinton Dial D.J. Fluker, Kelly Johnson, Nico Johnson, Barrett Jones, Eddie Lacy, Robert Lester, Dee Milliner, Jeremy Shelley, Damion Square, Carson Tinker, Chance Warmack, Ranzell Watkins, Jesse Williams and Michael Williams.

Players started the day in the weight room where their weight, height, standing broad jump, vertical jump and bench press were checked. After finishing in the weight room, they moved to the indoor football facility where they completed the 40-yard dash, agility testing and position-specific drills.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

when dealing with student-athletes.

NCAA legislation expressly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population:

- providing cash or loans, or signing for a loan;
- a guarantee of bond;
- the use of an automobile;
- gifts of any kind, including birthday cards;
- gift of clothing or equipment;
- providing loans to relatives or friends;
- any tangible items, including merchandise;
- free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type;
- free or reduced-cost housing;
- gift of cash or like items;
- providing special discounts for goods and services (e.g., car repairs, haircuts, etc.)
- purchasing complimentary admissions from a student-athlete
- providing an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF ALABAMA INTERESTS?

SOMEONE WHO:

- Has ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the athletics department, to a specific sport program or to an athletics booster organization, including purchasing donor seating to athletics events (i.e., Tide Pride Football or Tide Pride Basketball)
- Is or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (i.e., Red Elephant Club, Grand Slammers, etc.);
- Has ever helped to arrange - or has provided employment for - an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives;
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to prospective student-athletes or their families;
- Has otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program in any manner.

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletic ability.

A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or accepts an offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama until he/she reports for the first day of classes for a regular term (fall or spring).

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in the advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All charitable, educational and nonprofit promotional activities involving student-athletes must have prior approval from the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances for such events are coordinated through the UA Athletics Life Skills Office. For information, please call (205) 348-6618.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid will be eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (i.e., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's sport.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student-athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect;
- visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts pertaining to the evaluation of the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability;
- contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off the Alabama campus;
- contact a prospect by telephone or by letter;
- make special arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes;
- provide reduced cost products or services to a prospect.

"THE NICK SABAN SHOW" and "HEY, COACH"

Alabama fans again will have an opportunity to talk with Crimson Tide coach Nick Saban each Thursday night on his weekly radio show. Tom Roberts hosts the 60-minute coach's call-in show following "Hey, Coach" each Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. The first broadcast is set for August 15. Fans can join the program by calling toll-free 877-202-BAMA (2262). The "Nick Saban Show" begins on August 29.

"CRIMSON TIDE TODAY"

Alabama fans keep up with all of the Tide's players and coaches each weekday on "Crimson Tide Today," a daily update on all University of Alabama athletic teams with Tom Roberts and Chris Stewart.

"THE NICK SABAN TV SHOW"

The Crimson Tide's head coach will guide Alabama fans through the football season on his weekly television show, which is broadcast on stations in Alabama and the Southeast. The 30-minute TV show, hosted by Chris Stewart, features highlights, interviews and features with Alabama players. Check local listings for the time and station in your area. Veteran videographer Keith Dobbins will be at every game to shoot all of the action for the coach's TV show.

"CRIMSON TIDE THIS WEEK"

From the start of fall practice through the end of the spring sports season, Bama fans keep up with all sports on "Crimson Tide This Week," a fast-paced 30-minute weekly TV show hosted by Chris Stewart. Videographer Matt Hoggle, reporter John Huddleston and producer Tom Roberts complete the crew for the weekly show. Check local listings for the time and station in your area.

CTSM

crimson tide sports marketing

From opening day on August 31 through the bowl game, Alabama fans will hear all the action of Alabama football on the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). More than 50 radio stations in Alabama and around the south will broadcast Alabama football games in 2013.

Eli Gold is in his third decade as the voice of the Tide and has called the action of every Crimson Tide game since 1989. A nationally known sportscaster, Gold is also the host of "NASCAR Live," a weekly, nationally-syndicated radio call-in show. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for NFL, Arena Football League and NHL games on radio and television.

Providing the color analysis is former Crimson Tide assistant coach Phil Savage, who's been on the crew since 2008. A Mobile native and currently executive director of the Senior Bowl, Savage has extensive NFL experience as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns (under then-defensive coordinator Nick Saban), director of player personnel for the Baltimore Ravens and Senior vice president and general manager of the Browns.

Chris Stewart will patrol the sidelines during the games to keep fans up-to-date and then will head to the locker room for postgame interviews with coach Saban and Alabama players. A member of the crew since 1999, Stewart also is the voice of Alabama men's basketball and baseball.

Tyler Watts and Todd Robbins will start and end the game-day broadcast. Watts starred at quarterback for Alabama from 1999 to 2001 and joined the CTSN team in 2007. He will join Stewart for pay-per-view telecasts. Robbins has produced the pre-game and postgame shows for the network since 2005.

The veteran of the CTSN crew is Tom Roberts, who joined the broadcast team in 1979. He hosts the pre-game show, provides scoreboard updates throughout the game and hosts the halftime report.

Starting in 1984, Tom Stipe has produced the CTSN football broadcasts and he also serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Broadcasters Association. Butch Owens has stood behind Gold every week as the spotter since 1989 and Brian Roberts has been keeping up with all the numbers as the statistician for the broadcast since 1998. Jim Carabin oversees the Alabama broadcasts in his role as general manager of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing.

BUILT for THE NEXT LEVEL

Alabama cornerback Dee Milliner was selected ninth in the 2013 NFL Draft. He was one of three Crimson Tide players drafted in the first round and one of 14 first-round selections in Nick Saban's tenure at Alabama, representing the most first-rounders from one college football program during that time frame. D.J. Fluker was next off the board at No. 10 to the San Diego Chargers and Chance Warmack making it three straight Tide players with the 11th pick in 2013 to the Tennessee Titans. Alabama had a school-record nine players selected in the 2013 NFL Draft and 33 players chosen since 2008.
